Cosmonaut Strolls In Space While Soviets Watch On TV

SPACE TELECAST — Moscow television audiences today saw this view, which Soviet officials said was Lt. Col. Alexei Leonov emerging from two-man spacecraft Sunrise II, for a pioneering "stroll" in space, while the craft was on the second of a planned 16 orbits. (AP Wirephoto by cable from Moscow)

FLOATING FREE—Cosmonaut Alexei Leonov dangles on a 16-foot lifeline, framed in space by the bright earth (left) and the hull of his two-man spacecraft (above). He reportedly spent 10 minutes unprotected by anything other than his special pressure suit; six minutes were telecast in Moscow. (UPI Cablephoto from Tass)

Space-Suited Pioneer Outside 10 Minutes

MOSCOW (AP)—A Soviet rocket hurled two cosmonauts today into man's highest orbit and one of them spent 10 minutes outside the space ship.

Tass, the Soviet news agency, said he was "in condition of outer space" for 20 minutes, "including 10 minutes outside the ship." This indicated he spent 10 minutes in an airless chamber attached to the pressurized main cabin before going outside.

There were indications that the new space venture was intended as another step toward a trip to the moon by experimenting with the techniques needed to join space ships together. (See related story, page 19.)

Tass, the Soviet news agency, said Lt. Col. Alexei Leonov, 30, co-pilot of the space ship called Voskhod 2, went 16 feet from the space capsule. He appeared to be attached to the ship by a lifeline.

Soviet television stations showed a film of Leonov floating outside the space ship, with the curve of the earth and the blackness of space visible in the background.

Leonov wore what was described as a special "autonomous life-support suit." On television, the suit appeared bulky.

The helmet was heavy. What appeared to be oxygen containers were strapped to his back.

After the cosmonauts had been up more than nine hours, completing six orbits, they appeared again by live broadcast on Moscow television.

The pair appeared set for a period in space that equalled the night in the Soviet Union. But for them, it would be many short days and nights as they flew into a sunrise every 90 minutes.

90 MINUTES

Piloting Voskod 2 was Col. Pavel Belyayev, 39, the flight commander. Tass said a powerful rocket sent them into orbit at 10 a.m. (2 a.m. Eastern Standard Time) and Leonov stepped from the capsule 90 minutes later, at the end of the ship's first orbit of the earth.

"He successfully carried out the range of prescribed studies and observations and safely returned to the ship. Outside the ship and after returning to the ship, Leonov feels well," Tass said.

Voskhod 2 is the Soviet Union's second group-manned flight. It came five days before the United States is scheduled to launch its first in the Gemini program.

The American program also has scheduled an experimental "walk around in nothingness," but for a later flight.

FIVE MONTHS

The space ship blasted off a little more than five months after the first multiple-manned Voskhod (Sunrise) was launched with three men aboard.

Tass said according to preliminary data, Voskhod 2 is orbiting the earth every 90.9 minutes with a minimum distance from the earth of 108 miles and a maximum of 307 miles. It said the orbit angle to the equator is about 65 degrees, and "close to the prescribed orbit."

Before Voskhod 2 went aloft Soviet sources had suggested that two space ships might be put into orbit for link-up experiments that are essential in developing ships big enough to reach the planets.

The second Soviet group

Watcher Compares TV Sequence With New Boy's Game

MOSCOW (AP)—The first man to leave his craft in space looked like a little boy exuberantly playing a new game.

The six-minute television sequence showed Leonov's helmeted head rising from a hatch on what appeared to be the upper surface of the spacecraft.

He raised himself until his trunk was outside the hatch, but remained for about three minutes standing hesitantly on the doorstep to space.

Leonov was wearing a white helmet. Hoses and other attachments stretched over his shoulder from the helmet to a pack on his pack.

The coils of Leonov's safety line were suddenly ejected from the hatch, as though someone had thrown them.

Bracing himself with both hands on the rim of the hatch, Leonov arched his back and his feet floated up and out of the hatch.

His movements were like a swimmer moving under water.

After he finally pushed himself off from the shiny surface

Judge Approves Plan For March

MONTGOMERY, Ala. (UPI) Federal Judge Frank M. Johnson last night ordered Alabama officials to permit and protect a Selma-to-Montgomery civil rights march twice turned back by state troopers.

Johnson approved a plan, submitted by Negroes during a five-day hearing that ended yesterday, for the 50-mile march to begin no earlier than tomorrow and end five days later in front of the Capitol.

There was no definite word immediately on when the march would start. One Negro leader said Sunday was the likely day. Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., leader of the civil rights campaign in Alabama, said there would be an announcement today.

The long order ruled as unconstitutional a ban by Gov. George Wallace against the march, broken up with clubs and tear bas on March 7 and blocked again without incident two days later.

Wallace's office said he had no immediate comment on the order last night because it was "being studied." But Wallace earlier had said he would urge the people not to molest the demonstrators if Johnson allowed the march.

The governor's office later announced that Wallace would address a joint session of the legislature over a statewide television hookup today. His talk was expected to include comment on the march.

President Johnson, who has kept in close touch with the Alabama racial situation, said in Washington last night he was "pleased that the (march) issue. . .has been determined in the courts.

"Now that justice has spoken, I urge everyone concerned to respond fairly and in accordance with our traditional reliance upon law and order," the President said.

King said "we look forward to seeing Gov. George Wallace comply with the court order and provide protection for the marchers."

Judge Johnson said he realized the march "reaches. . . to the outer limits of what is constitutionally allowed." But, he said, the "wrongs and injustice inflicted" upon negroes "have clearly exceeded, and continued to exceed, the outer limits of what is constitutionally permissible."

Marinites Will Join In March

Marin ministers, returning with moving experiences in the drive for voting rights in Selma, Ala., sparked Marin County's participation in the movement to higher activity today.

Thirty-two students at San Francisco Theological Seminary, San Anselmo, were to leave this afternoon for Selma to take part in a weekend march to Montgomery.

The decision to go was reached after a student assembly this morning at which a telegram from Rev. Martin Luther King Jr., leader of the Christian Leadership Conference was read and when two seminary professors told of their experiences in Selma earlier this week.

"In Selma, something symbolic is happening," said Rev. Benjamin A. Reist, professor of systematic theology. "For the first time, the demonstration is nation-wide and cuts across all strata of national life. Dr. King for the first time has an inexhaustable supply of troops com-

Banker Claims To Be Victim Of Conspiracy

(Compiled from wire service reports)

WASHINGTON — Banker Don C. Silverthorne of San Francisco today called himself the victim of character assassination in a political-financial power play that destroyed the San Francisco National Bank.

Silverthorne, who was president of the bank until ousted last December, handed out copies of what he said he would tell a Senate investigations subcommittee, in advance of his being called to the witness stand.

In his prepared testimony, he said:

"I charge the comptroller's office with the destruction of this bank and their unlawful attempt to besmirch my record and good name."

He said also that he was the victim of a "vicious and unfounded attempt at character assassination by the comptroller of the currency and his San Francisco regional deputy."

And he said San Francisco National was forced to the wall because he had made it too competitive to suit bigger and richer rivals. Comptroller of the Currency James J. Saxon sided with those rivals, claimed Silverthorne.

His prepared defense did not

Senate Group Approves Smog Bill

SACRAMENTO (AP) — The Senate Finance Committee today approved an auto smog control bill, but only after stripping the measure of most of its provisions applying to used cars.

The committee amended the original bill by Sen. Randolph Collier, D-Yreka, to exempt all used cars manufactured before 1963 from having to have exhaust control devices installed.

Before it was amended, the bill would have required the exhaust devices on all used cars beginning in 1955 through 1963.

Thief Strikes Church During Lenten Service

St. Hilary's Catholic Church rectory and adjacent school office in Tiburon were looted of about $1,225 cash last night, only yards from where Lenten services were being conducted.

Sheriff's officers said today an all-point bulletin has been issued for a discharged church gardener and handyman, believed to be armed and dangerous.

He is Stanley McKinney, 28, Building K, Hilarita Housing Project, Tiburon. Deputies said McKinney is an ex-convict from Walla Walla, Wash., and likely is carrying a 9 mm. Luger pistol with about 100 rounds of ammunition.

The church's housekeeper, Mrs. Teresa Woolf, told officers she believed she encountered McKinney in the darkened rectory hallway at 9 p.m. yesterday.

Rev. William Mena, with the church only three weeks, said the unlocked rectory office, a separate building next door to the Hilary Drive church, was entered and wooden cabinets containing a small safe were pried open.

About $1,200 cash, receipts from last Sunday's collections, were taken from the safe in two large canvas bags, officers said. Mrs. Woolf told them she encountered the man she believed was McKinney in the hallway with a box in his hands.

Officers quoted her as asking the man if she shouldn't turn on lights. He replied, "No," she told deputies, and fled out of an east door of the rectory.

Father Mena said only money

Racial Fight Closes School

Dozens of fist fights broke out before more than a hundred policemen, some of them on horseback, broke up the demonstration which stemmed from a weekend of racial incidents on the east side.

Authorities said the brawling did not involve the school as such but stemmed from a fight last Friday night. Six white boys said they were beaten by Negroes as they walked in front of a YMCA a Negro group rented for a dance.

DA NANG, South Viet Nam — South Vietnamese forces today claimed 64 Viet Cong guerrillas were killed and 16 captured in three actions in the northnmost 1st Army Corps area. (See related stories, page 16.)

The government reported 16 of its men were wounded and none killed in the three actions yesterday.

The Black Panther company left 28 Viet Cong dead on one battlefield 60 miles northwest of Da Nang. Two Reds were captured, 13 weapons seized and 10 South Vietnamese were wounded.

Sit-Down Staged At White House

WASHINGTON (AP) — More than 30 college students from northeastern states maintained a chilled sit-down vigil in front oft he White House today, demonstrating in support of the drive to register Negro voters.

Huddled in blankets, ponchos and sleeping bags on pavement wet from all-night rain, the group sat in a line just outside the tall iron fence separating the White House grounds from Pennsylvania Avenue pedestrians.

Nearly 200 students marched two miles to the White House yesterday in a pelting rain and sat in slush at the same spot.

WILMINGTON, Los Angeles County (AP)—"Please don't let this happen again," said Mrs. Jose Gutierrez. "There must be a way to keep children out of here."

They abandoned the search at dusk, but lifeguards planned to resume it today.

The youngster fell through a hole in the wooden cover of the oil tank while playing on Shell Oil Co. property with two other boys Tuesday, police said. The tank had been out of use for 10 years, and Mark fell 25 feet into the tar-like residue on the bottom.

Losing Candidate 'Victim Of Charge'

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Gov. Brown says Democrat Jack Halpin, who lost an election for the State Senate, was the "first victim" of a "vicious attack" on the State Department of Finance.

Halpin

The governor's remarks yesterday were directed primarily at Assemblyman James Mills, D-San Diego, but they served also to perpetuate his political feud with Assembly Speaker Jesse M. Unruh, D-Los Angeles.

Halpin, a former deputy state finance director, lost the election in the 5th District Tuesday to Republican Fred W. Marler Jr.

Brown said Mills' charges last week of budget juggling were "proven absolutely false" by the Sacramento County district attorney.

"All Halpin could do for a solid week was tell the voters it wasn't true, but once a charge like that is made it is very hard to salvage your reputation."

CONGRESS GIVEN VOTING MEASURE

Work By Bipartisan Leaders Appears To Have Smoothed Way For Passage

Less than 24 hours after President Johnson sent the bill to Capitol Hill, Atty. Gen. Nicholas Katzenbach was to go before the House Judiciary Committee to explain its sweeping provisions.

Chairman Emanuel Celler, D-N.Y., in moving the hearings up from their scheduled opening next week, said "the continuing shameful and tragic events in Alabama" make speedy action essential.

BOTH PARTIES

Long and careful preparation of the bill by the Justice Department and congressional leaders of both parties appears to have smoothed the way for passage.

In an address to a joint session of Congress Monday night, the President urged the legislators to work weekends and at night, if necessary, to assure prompt passage.

The bill was written, in effect, by a bipartisan group of congressional leaders who conferred regularly with Katzenbach. Senate Republican Leader Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois, who headed the Republican contingent, said he could not recall so much congressional initiative in writing a major bill and called it "a whale of a precedent."

DIRKSEN HOPES

Dirksen said he hopes the bill can be brought before the Senate early next month. But he does not expect it to be passed before Easter, April 18.

The bill is intended to enforce the 15th Amendment, which guarantees that no citizen shall be denied the right to vote because of race or color. In his message Monday night, Johnson said the amendment is "being systematically and willfully circumvented" in certain states and areas.

There are four main provisions by which the bill seeks to make it possible for Negroes to vote in all elections — federal, state and local.

FOUR PROVISIONS

They would:

Eliminate literacy tests or any other "test or device" as a means of denying anyone the right to vote in a state or county where less than 50 per cent of the persons of voting age are registered or voting.

Empower federal examiners to register voters in such states or counties, wherever 20 or more residents complain they have been denied the right to vote by reason of race or color.

Place jurisdiction for enforcing the act — or hearing appeals brought under it — only in the federal court in the District of Columbia. Federal district judges in the South thereby would be barred from issuing injunctions against enforcement of any of the bill's provisions or against any action of federal officials acting under it.

Outlaw threats, coercion or intimidation against any person attempting to vote under authority of the act.

Most violations of the law would carry a penalty of up to five years in jail or a $5,000 fine, or both.

Chamber Asks States Rights Apportionment

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — The California State Chamber of Commerce has asked its more than 6,000 members to pledge support to a statewide drive to secure a U. S. constitutional amendment designed to give individual states the right to select their own system of legislative apportionment.

State chamber president Milton M. Teague, in a letter to all members, urged support of the amendment "to preserve California's balanced system of representation which has been jeopardized by the recent Supreme Court ruling."

Teague said, "The state chamber believes citizens of our state should be privileged to have a system which they have supported in four different statewide elections in the past and which now affords the vital balance in state government so essential to our future growth and prosperity."

Military Pay Raise Attack Is Charged

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The Defense Department is working overtime to "scuttle and discredit" a billion-dollar military pay raise bill, according to the Armed Forces journal.

The independent service publication said yesterday that "top Defense Department officials are working out details for a concerted drive in demolishing" the bill, proposed by Chairman L. Mendel Rivers, D-S.C., of the House Armed Services Committee.

School Where LBJ Taught Is Still Picture Of Poverty

Many Latin Pupils Poor, Often Hungry

Many of its 287 pupils — all Latin Americans — are poor, and often hungry.

The playground is still dusty. The same janitor cleans the eight classrooms.

"My students were poor, and often hungry," the President recalled in a speech to Congress Monday night. "And they knew even in their youth the pain of prejudice."

FIRST JOB

He talked of his year as a teacher in the Welhausen Elementary School. It was his first job after graduation from college.

"We still have children that go to school without breakfast," said C. R. Landrum, Cotulla school superintendent, a college classmate of Johnson. "Often we'll buy their lunch, if we know their family is on welfare.

NEAR BORDER

Cotulla, population about 4,000 is only 70 miles from the Texas-Mexico border in ranching country. Cactus grows waist high. Often it is the hottest place in the state.

About 60 per cent of the residents bear Spanish surnames.

Johnson spoke of prejudice against the Latin Americans. Landrum said he feels, however, that discrimination "is a thing of the past in Cotulla."

There are no Negroes in school here.

Tomas Coronado, 67, the janitor, is the only employee of the Welhausen school who was here when Johnson was on the faculty. The few words of English he speaks Coronado said he owes to Johnson.

"He taught me the ABC's in his spare time," the janitor said through an interpreter. "We'd get in the classroom after school. Mr. Johnson used a Spanish-English dictionary."

When Johnson came to the school in the fall of 1928, he didn't speak Spanish, almost a prerequisite in those days. Coronado said by the year's end Johnson used Spanish "pretty well."

LEARNED ABC's—Thomas Coronado, 67, has been janitor at school in Cotulla since before President Johnson was teacher there in 1928-29. Johnson taught him ABC's during spare time. Coronado waters lawn outside Johnson's former classroom.
(AP Wirephoto)

Wilhausen had a seven-grade school then. Now it has only grades one through four.

"When I first heard of the war on poverty," Landrum said, "I felt the seed was probably planted in his (Johnson's) mind in Cotulla, Tex., with his experience teaching the Latin Americans.

"The need is here. I'm sure La Salle County (Cotulla) has one of the highest illiteracy rates in the state."

A 1960 survey by a Roman Catholic Church organization showed the median school year completed by those in La Salle County with Spanish surnames was 1.4 years. It placed the average income at $1,585.

was taken from the office. He said the school office, in the main school building about 100 yards from the rectory was entered by forcing a door. A cabinet there was also pried open, he said, and a petty cash fund estimated at $25 was taken.

Rev. John Murray, church pastor, has been ill in St. Mary's Hospital in San Francisco, Father Mena said, and was not notified of the burglaries this morning.

Sheriff's officers said they have no criminal record for McKinney, nor does the California Criminal Identification and Investigation Bureau.

He was hired by Father Murray eight weeks ago, church officials said. Officers quoted the officials as saying he was discharged a week ago for heavy drinking.

McKinney is described as weighing 215 pounds, is six feet, two inches tall, heavy set and of ruddy complexion.

Citizen Group Speeds Plans On Planning

The Citizens Advisory Committee on the Future of Marin is scheduled to present its plans for an all-day planning conference June 5 to the Marin County Board of Supervisore Tuesday.

Last night the committee reviewed the progress of its planning committee, which is studying planning in regard to topography, urban density and transportation.

The planning committee is scheduled to meet at 8 p.m. today at the Civic Center for another work session before Junius Thompson of Novato outlines plans to the supervisors Tuesday.

Wendell Ames of the planning committee is scheduled to speak at the next meeting of the Marin Council of Mayors and Councilmen to request participation of cities in the June conference.

Exhibitors Hear Marin Fair Aide

Mrs. McCoy and designer Charles Hoeppner answered questions by the potential exhibitors on how they could adapt their special garden interests to this year's fair theme "Summertime — 1900."

The fair will be held at the center from July 1 through 5. About 25 gardeners attended yesterday's luncheon, which was limited to amateurs only this year.

Soviet Cosmonaut Leaves Out Of Capsule 10 Minutes

space flight appeared timed to take the propaganda wind out of the first American attempt to orbit more than one astronaut in a single capsule.

Air Force Maj. Virgil I. Grissom and Navy Comdr. John W. Young are scheduled to make a three-orbit flight together on that date.

Voskhod 2 is the eighth manned space flight announced by the Soviets, although observers abroad have speculated that there may have been unsuccessful flights that were not announced.

Tass said Belyayev, the oldest man the Soviets have put into orbit, has been flying since he was 18. He entered pilot's school during World War II and in 1945 was a fighter pilot in the Far East. He is married and has two daughters.

Leonov entered aviation school in 1953, Tass reported, and is now studying at the Zhukovsky Air Force Engineering Academy. He has made a study of spacecraft design. He is also married and has one daughter.

Bridge Suicide Report False–Cycle Crashes

California Highway Patrol Officer, Richard Treadwell, 34, of 663 Peach Street, Novato, was unhurt in a crash of his speeding motorcycle at 9:30 a.m. today on East Sir Francis Drake Boulevard, while answering a report of a suicide attempt on the Richmond-San Rafael Bridge.

His machine skidded on loose gravel at the center of the road near the West Gate of San Quentin Prison. He rode with it as it skidded out of control for 150 feet along the road and into a ditch where he was pitched off of the spaceship, he slowly floated away from the camera.

His body continued to float away from the camera and his lifeline could be seen stretching taut. Leonov reached over and touched the line—as though to adjust it and reassure himself that it was there.

Despite the cumbersome looking space suit with its "autonomous life-support system," as Tass called it, Leonov began slowly and gracefully turning somersaults in the air.

His turns seemed slow and deliberate at first, then more confident and relaxed.

Audubon Series Sets Film On Venezuela

"Delta of the Orinoco," a color film about the vast area of Venezuela swamps and jungles, will be shown by its originator, Robert C. Hermes, at 7:30 p.m. Sunday in Olney Hall, College of Marin.

The film shows close-ups of oropendolas building nests, jungle birds in courtship, a visit with the mud dauber wasp, tropical hummingbirds, colorful macaws, the four-eyed anableps fish and the sloth. It is the last in a series of wildlife films presented this season by the Marin Audubon Society.

Panel Indicts Escapee Pair

Two San Quentin inmates, Larry James Lane and C. L. Clark, were indicted by Marin County Grand Jury yesterday for a Feb. 25 escape.

Prison officials said the pair walked away from a ranch dormitory outside the main walls. They were recaptured in a summer cabin on the Noyo River in Mendocino County last March 3.

Lane was convicted for first degree robbery in Placer County on April 27, 1962. Clark was convicted, also for robbery, in Fresno County on Feb. 5, 1963.

Landmark Must Be Relocated

State Registered Landmark No. 207 — Entitled "John Reed's Saw Mill"—must be moved to prepare for the widening of East Blithedale Avenue in Mill Valley.

Wolfe Grade Extension Is Opposed

Kentfield Civic League directors are still strongly opposed to extension of Wolfe Grade from Sir Francis Drake Boulevard to Bon Air Bridge, league secretary Kenneth L. Wiltz said today.

The board intends to continue to work to keep the extension out of the Kentfield general plan, now being considered by the Marin County Board of Supervisors.

But the league has agreed to hold a special membership meeting to discuss conditions under which opposition might be dropped, Wiltz said. The board voted 7-0 Monday to call the meeting but did not set a date.

The Independent-Journal Tuesday erroneously reported that the 7-0 vote Monday night asked that the supervisors hold a special hearing on the subject.

Purse Stolen From Locker At Phone Building

Joanne E. Steiner, district traffic manager of Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Co.'s San Rafael office, complained to police Monday that $148 was stolen from her purse in a locker at the firm's building at 1 H Street.

San Rafael police said they are investigating several thefts from the locker room in the past two weeks.

Two bags of steer manure, worth 59 cents each, were taken from the Regal gas station at Fifth and Lincoln avenues Monday. Attendant Michael B. Ricketts said two men drove away with them.

In still another petty theft, someone broke into the main building at Davidson School, Woodland Avenue and Lindaro Street, taking two small wooden vending machines containing pens and pencils.

In them were 75 ball point pens, worth $15, and 100 pencils, worth $5. All bore the words "Davidson Panthers."

Builder L. A. Bilderback Dies At 83

Leslie Aaron Bilderback, 83, who built many stores, office and apartment buildings and homes during his 25 years as a contractor in Marin County, died yesterday shortly after being rushed to San Rafael General Hospital.

Blizzards, Tornadoes Prolong Winter's Grip

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

Tornadoes and violent wind storms battered eastern sections of North Carolina last night, killing an infant, injuring about 40 persons and causing extensive property damage.

At the same time, blizzards swept across northern areas from the Rockies to the eastern Great Lakes region. The late winter storm extended into the northeast and subzero cold spread into sections of the plains, with freezing weather into Arkansas.

Some 30 persons were injured in tornadoes which also hit areas in Alabama, Mississippi, Tennessee, Illinois and Indiana.

The twister which skipped across the edge of New Bern, N.C., a town of about 15,000, reportedly touched down three times, destroying several homes, damaging others, overturning house trailers and damaging 26 airplnes and some buildings at the airport.

Property damage was unofficially estimated as high as a million dollars, including $250,000 at the airport. A Negro infant boy was killed and his mother and his sister injured when their house was destroyed by the tornado. Thirty-eight persons were treated at a New Bern hospital and 13 were admitted.

The Duluth, Minn., and Superior, Wis., area was struck by a 13-inch snowfall yesterday leaving an accumulation of 40 inches on the ground. All Duluth area roads were closed. City bus service was suspended.

St. Cloud in central Minnesota reported 33 inches of snow on the ground. More than 200 schools were closed in Minnesota.

HOW LONG DOES IT TAKE TO STOP?

Traffic accident reports often cite the distance of tire marks laid down by a car after brakes are applied; but it's not only the car that takes time to stop. The pedestrian, too, needs to stop quickly and doesn't always do so. To dramaitze this for children at Neil Cummins School in Corte Madera, the California Highway Patrol yesterday ran a test of stopping time for walkers. Here, measurements show it took sixth grader Leslie Prowse (the girl with long hair) six feet to stop after auto horn sounded warning. Conducting the demonstration is Officer Paul E. Zensius of the highway patrol. (Independent-Journal photo)

Marin Asked To Donate For Reeb Fund

Collection tables will be set up in major shopping centers throughout the county this weekend in Marin's campaign for the James J. Reeb Memorial Fund.

Mrs. William J. Jackson of Lucas Valley heads the memorial fund committee, organized to honor the memory of the Boston minister who was fatally beaten in Selma, Ala. San Rafael attorney Hadden W. Roth is treasurer of the memorial fund committee.

Mrs. Jackson said the money collected will be sent to the Southern Christian Leadership Conference, headed by Dr. Martin Luther King, "to assist in reaching the objectives for which the Reverend Reeb gave his life."

Contributions may also be mailed to Post Office Box 4036, Civic Center, San Rafael.

Mrs. Jackson said that on Sunday, various churches will help in collecting for the fund.

Academy Units Win At Parade

Three units from the San Rafael Military Academy won first awards in St. Patrick's Parade held Sunday in San Francisco.

Petaluma Unification Plan With Marin Area Approved

The Marin County Committee on School District Organization last night agreed with a plan for unification of the Petaluma High School District that includes three elementary school districts in Marin.

The Marin districts included in the Petaluma plan are Laguna, Union and Lincoln, all in northern Marin.

Committee members balked at including the former Burdell district, now part of the Lincoln School District. They felt it was slated to become a part of the new Novato Unified District.

The Burdell area, consisting of ranch land and only a few students, extends southward in a narrow wedge that reaches the Dixie School District boundary, and is in the path of Novato's westward growth.

Committee members agreed to the Petaluma proposal on the condition that a boundary change be considered later so the Burdell area could go into the Novato district.

Charles R. Robinson, assistant superintendent of schools in Sonoma County, said the Sonoma County Committee on School District Organization is willing to let the Burdell area go to the Novato district. But, Robinson said, he did not want the boundary change to be undertaken now because it would upset the schedule to get the Petaluma proposal to the State Board of Education and have an election this year to qualify for bonus money.

Chairman Earl G. Marshall said it would be unfair to stop the Petaluma election over the Burdell issue, but he did not want Burdell residents to be "snookered into a district they don't want to be in."

Mrs. Betty Wallace, committee member, said Burdell is part of the Novato growth area "and we feel it should be part of the Novato Unified District."

Marshall pointed out that the Marin committee's proposal on unification of the San Jose-Novato area schools included the provision that the Burdell area would become part of the district after a successful election.

Robinson said that when hearings were held on the Petaluma proposal Feb. 18, there was no representative from the Burdell area present.

The Petaluma plan is scheduled to be presented to the State Board of Education April 8, and if approved there will be an election June 8.

Awarded $650,000

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — A Southern Pacific brakeman, who lost both legs in a railroad accident, yesterday was awarded $650,000 damages in a San Francisco Superior Court. Fred Henninger, 30, of San Lorenzo was thrown onto the tracks Dec. 20, 1963, when a coupler on a railroad car broke.

Mill Valley Club Setup Is Changed

Mill Valley's municipal golf chlubhouse will henceforth be closed and locked except when it is actually in use by someone renting the premises, City Mgr. Bert A. Balmer said today.

Mr. and Mrs. Werner Korreng, caterers and custodians, have resigned but are to continue catering to service clubs for an indefinite time.

The clubhouse has been open to the public from 7 a.m. to midnight. Keys to the building will be obtainable either from Golf Pro Malcolm Brown at the golf pro shop or from police.

Tam Unification Foes Organize, Recite Why

A committee of Citizens Against Forced Unification has been formed to fight the April 20 ballot measure for unification of all school districts in Tamalpais High School district, it was announced today.

Tiburon City Councilman Leo Souza, the committee's general chairman, gave these reasons for his group's opposition to the "too-big Tam-wide plan":

"First, smaller unified districts, more responsive to individual community support and control, provide better education as demonstrated by several such districts throughout the state. Our excellent elementary programs can be preserved. The high school program, which is the same at each school, can be continued and enhanced.

"Second, with Tam-wide unification, school construction costs to the local taxpayer will soar. The new district will not be able to qualify for state building funds without asking the voters to assume all outstanding bonded indebtedness, and, in addition, to pass an immediate multi-million-dollar bond issue to meet bonding capacity. . . .

"Third, large unified districts do not necessarily reduce costs. To the contrary, like most big government, the number of administrators usually increases. Salaries for principals, teachers, custodians and clerks in the entire district will automatically be jumped to the highest schedule in the district. This alone will cost more than the entire 'bonus' money to be granted if unification should pass.

"Fourth, voters in California, who value good education, are rejecting unsatisfactory unification all over the state. Since Jan. 1, 1965, out of 29 elections held, 24 proposals were defeated, or approximately 83 per cent. . . ."

Other committee officers are Sally Rakow, San Anselmo, secretary; Dan Romano, Kentfield, treasurer; John Cahill, Kentfield,, finance; H. Broderick, Tiburon, precinct organization; Alyce Farkas, Corte Madera, speakers, and Jim Rice, Tiburon, publicity.

Woman Will Face Shoplifting Charge

Employees at J. C. Penney's Co. in Corte Madera shopping center stopped a woman about to leave and then called police to say she was trying to escape with two men's suits under her coat.

Patricia McDonald, 29, of San Francisco, was charged in a citizen's arrest with petty theft and booked at Marin County Jail. She was later released on $276 bail to appear Friday in Marin Municipal Court.

HOW TO KEEP WELL

By DR. THEODORE R. VAN DELLEN

VAN DELLEN

The latest trend in hospital nurseries is the use of ready-to-feed milk mixtures. Every day milk is delivered to supply the needs of babies who are not breast fed. It comes in sterile, disposable containers with or without nipples. Refrigeration is not needed and the product is not warmed.

According to Dr. Herman F. Meyer, Chicago pediatrician, six companies provide 46 different ready-to-feed units and fluid products to nurseries in 15 cities. Several dilutions are needed to meet the demands of the individual child. Some products are delivered in varied-sized bulk containers. The milk is poured into flexible plastic feeders before using. Others are provided in glass bottles or metal containers with sterile nipple assembly ready to be attached.

THE READY - TO - FEED liquids are not as expensive as preparing formulas in the hospital nursery. This is calculated on the basis of cost of labor, equipment, sterilizers, bottle washing, multiple refrigerator units, and warming devices. There is no worry about faulty sterilizing, cross infections, or slips in preparations. The problem is disposing of the disposables. One infant will have emptied 27 four-ounce bottles during his stay in the hospital.

Some large cities have had commercial formula services for many years. It originates in a milk plant licensed by local health departments and is prepared under supervised and meticulous sanitation. They are delivered in units which are contained in polyethylene wrappers. The cover remains intact until the infant is fed. Bottles and nipples are returned to the driver at the next delivery.

THE BABY FORMULA services in many cities provide daily deliveries to homes of any prescribed milk mixture in disposable containers. Two companies also distribute formulas through retail drug stores. The grocery may be next. The success of these ventures depends upon the integrity of those entrusted with the preparation and testing of the product.

AFTERNOON NAP

Mrs. L. writes: Does a 5-year-old need an afternoon nap?

REPLY

At this age, it is not what they need but what you can get them to do. Most youngsters have broken away from the nap habit by the fifth birthday but it is wise to insist upon a rest when they have been up late the night before and are crabby and upset.

OUTSTRETCHED SKIN

Mrs. F. writes: I have white lines on my thighs. What are the causes?

REPLY

These bands, known as striae, are most likely to occur when the skin has been overstretched and then returns to normal. This may follow pregnancy or reducing. Occasionally the condition is on a gladular basis.

PAINFUL LUMP

B. D. writes: I have a small nodule in my breast which is painful at times. My doctor says it is not dangerous because it is not attached. Isn't it unusual for this type of lump to be painful?

REPLY

Yes, if this lump is just an infected milk duct or chronic mastitis.

Today's Health Hint — Nose and throat infections can cause hearing loss.

Alabama Bishop Criticizes Nuns

MOBILE, Ala. (AP)—The leader of the Mobile-Birmingham Roman Catholic diocese has criticized Catholic nuns and priests who have come to Selma to participate in civil rights demonstrations.

"I do not believe priests are equipped to lead groups in disobedience to the laws of this state," the Most Rev. Thomas J. Toolen, archbishop of the Mobile-Birmingham diocese said. He added that a "great injustice is being done to the State of Alabama."

Toolen made his remarks at a St. Patrick's Day banquet.

He said he has sought to promote "just and equitable" treatment for Negroes and has made special efforts to help them.

Remains Critical

Maj. (ret.) Trymon W. Hunter, 43, of Sonoma, who suffered a heart attack Sunday afternoon at Hamilton Air Force Base Hospital after taking his injured son to the hospital, remained in critical condition today.

Students Seek Clean Campus

Students of Redwood High School have challenged the faculty to a contest to keep the Redwood campus clean.

Under a reorganization of Self Government, the school's student law enforcement body, student officers will patrol only the south half of the covered eating area, leaving the remaining lunching areas to supervision of the teachers.

It will be the goal of the students to beat the faculty's efforts in controlling the litter problem.

DANCING FOR YOUTH

Bagley Tells Engagement To Secretary

Assemblyman William T. Bagley, R-San Rafael, and his secretary plan to be married this summer.

She is Diane Oldham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Oldham of Klamath Falls, Ore.

Miss Oldham, a 1958 graduate of University of Oregon in business administration, has been a San Rafael resident for four years.

For three and one-half years, she has worked in Bagley's legal office in San Rafael and in his legislative office at the State Capitol in Sacramento.

The assemblyman announced their engagement at a dinner given by Gov. Edmund G. (Pat) Brown at the Executive Mansion this week.

The wedding is expected to take place in June, immediately after the current legislative session winds up in Sacramento.

Bagley has three children from his first marriage, which ended in divorce last year. His two sons and daughter live with their mother, Doris L. Bagley, in San Rafael.

Maritime Cadets Stricken At Sea

An outbreak of viral pneumonia has attacked 47 cadets on the California Maritime Academy's training ship, Golden Bear, en route from Yokohama to Vallejo.

The ship's doctor and one medical corpsman believe they have the situation under control, however, and the Golden Bear will continue home, Ernest N. Kettenhofen of San Anselmo, chairman of the board of the maritime academy, was informed by radiogram.

None of the cases appears to be serious, Kettenhofen said.

There are several Marin youths among the 250 cadets aboard the ship, but it was unknown whether any of them is among those stricken.

The Golden Bear was about 700 miles northwest of Honolulu late yesterday when the outbreak was reported. A Coast Guard plane from Honolulu dropped additional medical supplies to the ship.

Capt. H. F. Richter, commander of the academy at Vallejo, radioed Capt. Carl Bowman, the Golden Bear's skipper, to put in at Honolulu if he felt it necessary. A subsequent radiogram from Bowman said this would not be required, however, Kettenhofen reported.

Burglars Fail At Clothing Store

Burglars tried to break into the Louis George clothing store in the Corte Madera Shopping Center last night, but were apparently scared away before they had entered the building.

Police said glass doors leading to the shopping center mall were broken with a pry bar.

Tahoe Study Group Gains

CARSON CITY, Nev. (UPI) — The Nevada Assembly last night passed a bill creating a California-Nevada Joint Study Committee on the problems of Lake Tahoe.

The measure, which now goes to the Senate, sets up a nine-member board to make recommendations to the next legislative session for the orderly development of the lake area.

The committee is charged with studying such items as air and water pollution, the availability of recreational facilities, policing and preserving the scenic beauty of the mile-high lake resort area.

Radio Panel Supports Elderly Housing Bonds

Voter approval of San Rafael's proposed housing program for elderly residents was supported today by four speakers on radio station KTIM's "Marin Sounding Board."

The housing measure to provide five units with ten apartments each, built with courts in neighborhood areas, will be on the April 12 municipal election ballot.

Supporting the program were San Rafael Mayor John F. McInnis; Dr. Marjorie Belkap, chairman of the Senior Citizens Advisory Board; Marjean Hedden, member of the the board of the Marin Assn. for Mental Health and former vice- chairman of the Housing of Marin's Elderly (HOME), and Donald O. Stutsman, executive director of the Housing Authority and Redevelopment Agency of Marin.

Miss Hedden reported that the 1960 Marin County census showed 780 households in which the head of the family was 60 years old or older and the income was less than $3,000.

"These families are desparately in need of housing they can afford," she declared.

Miss Hedden said that HOME was refused permission to photograph substandard structures used for housing because the owner or tenant was ashamed, embarrassed or afraid the buildinge would be condemned.

Mayor McInnis and Dr. Belkap said that although there were building codes in effect which could be applied to force reconstruction of substandard structures, the expense of upgrading the buildings would be added to the tenatns' rent and would force them to move out.

McInnis explained that under the city's program, the city would control the use and occupancy of the units.

He said that if the city had applied for and received federal assistance for the project, it could not be assured that it would be allowed to give priority to elderly San Rafael residents with low incomes.

McInnis said the city would have the right to accept non-San Rafael residents in the development but would also have the right to give priority to San Rafael residents.

Stutsman said that federally assisted projects could not discriminate on the basis of age. He said projects in the Bay Area which were designed for the use of the elderly, constructed with federal aid, being used entirely elderly persons,

McInnis said the rent for the proposed units would range from about $40 to $60.

Asked why the San Rafael City Council refused to allow the county to construct a low-rent housing project in the city with financial assistance from the federal government, McInnis said the council believed its program for community control should be tried.

He emphasized that the plan would avoid a large concentration of units which would create an institutional atmosphere.

The program, moderated by Kitty Oppenheimer, will be rebroadcast at 12:30 p.m. Sunday.

Marinites Set To Join March

Reis, Rev. Aaron J. Ungersma, professor of pastoral theology, and Rev. Neil Q. Hamilton, associate professor of the new Testament, returned from Selma last night.

Hamilton came back with a case of influenza and could not be present at the assembly.

Ungersma told the students he was under fire twice during World War II, but was never so scared as he was in Selma. The war was an impersonal thing but the hatred in Selma is "flesh against flesh," he said.

The seminary professors echoed the views of others just back from Selma.

"It was the most moving experience of my life," said Rev. Karel F. Botermans of the Unitarian-Universalist Church of Marin.

Botermans and Walter Bremond, Marin County director of community relations, were in Selma together and spent two days behind the rope barrier. Both were strongly moved by the feeling of love among the Negroes and the intense aura of hatred from the officers guarding the barrier, they reported.

The people of Alabama are living "in a police state, run by a demagoguge, Gov. George Wallace," where network television programs about human rights are censored and where white citizens who are concerned about race relations are harassed, Bremond said.

"It's an occupied country," Botermans said.

A native of Holland, Botermans worked in the underground during the Nazi occupation of his homeland. He said he could not help comparing the situation in Alabama with the Nazi rule.

The one big difference is that in Alabama you do not feel alone, while doing the war "you never know who your friends were," he reported.

In one Negro school, he related, there was a slogan chalked on the blackboard: "May I never stoop so low as to hate any man."

"I thought," Botermans said, "wouldn't it be wonderful if every blackboard in the country had this on it?"

Botermans went to Alabama with 15 other Bay Area Unitarians after Rev. James Reeb's death. The Boston Unitarian died as a result of a beating by white extremists in Selma.

A service for Reeb Monday afternoon was "the first great ecuminical service that has ever been held," Botermans declared. Every faith was represented and when all locked arms in song at the end of the service it was a wonderful feeling, he said.

When he and Bremond left Tuesday, they were replaced by Rev. Samuel Banks, Negro pastor of the Village Baptist Church in Marin City and Douglas J. Quiett of Tiburon, chairman of the Marin Congress of Racial Equality.

Yesterday, seven clergymen and a seminarian met at Christ Episcopal Church in Sausalito to sign a resolution confirming their convictions that every American citizen should be guaranteed the right to vote.

Signing it were Rev. David Jacobsen, Sausalito Presbyterian Church; Rev. Leon Samuels, Gospel Fellowship Church, Marin City; Rev. Edward Stacks and Seminarian Charles Higgins, both of Sausalito's First Baptist Church; Rev. Don Schilling and Rev. James Symons, both of St. Andrew United Presbyterian Church, Marin City; Rev. Henry O'Flynn, Star of the Sea Catholic Church, and Rev. John Thornton, Christ Episcopal Church, Sausalito.

ANXIOUS GLANCE—An unidentified civil rights demonstrator casts an anxious glance behind her as a group of about 600 demonstrators leave the Dallas County Courthouse. The march yesterday was held in the rain after a federal judge cleared the way for the afternoon march in Selma, Ala. (UPI Telephoto)

Winds Dropping, Clouds Go Away

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Clouds and overcast cleared away during the night in most of Northern and Central California, and fair weather was predicted through tomorrow at least.

High cloudiness and overcast persisted in much of the southern third of the state. There was some cloudiness in the southern San Joaquin Valley.

Gale warnings, which had been flying along the coast south to Point Conception in Santa Barbara County, were lowered.

Selma Pickets Stage Sit-In After Arrest

SELMA, Ala. (AP) — Twenty-one white demonstrators, including many clergymen, staged an all night sit-in at city recorder's court after their arrest for trying to picket the mayor's home.

Public Safety Director Wilson Baker persuaded 19 of the demonstrators to sign their $200 bonds about midmorning. The other two were jailed after they refused to sign bonds.

They were among 36 pickets arrested yesterday in an attempt to demonstrate at the residence of Mayor Joseph T. Smitherman. They were charged with parading without a permit.

After the arrests, 15 of the demonstrators signed bonds.

The other 21 refused and remained in the unlocked second floor courtroom at City Hall all night. Then 19 more signed bonds today.

The two who were jailed were the Rev. Patrick A. Jackson, Ann Arbor, Mich., a Roman Catholic priest, and Paul Michael Bokulich of Harper Woods, Mich., whose occupation was not immediately determined.

The picketing of the mayor's house was attempted reportedly to discuss Negro housing conditions in Selma after about 700 marchers went from Browns Chapel A.M.E. Church to the Dallas County Courthouse.

The demonstrators locked arms and marched two abreast yesterday to the green, three-story courthouse, where they sang and displayed signs for more than half an hour.

They stood in intemittent rain and gusting winds. Some carried umbrellas and wore raincoats.

The march was the third attempted in two days to protest voter discrimination. Local officers halted two attempts Tuesday.

Two Injured In Head-On Crash

Two persons were injured in a two-car head-on collision yesterday on Panoramic Highway.

Rolf W. Raak, 24, in the Air Force assigned to Mount Tamalpais Radar Station, was driving east on the curving road at 11 p.m. when he was blinded by the lights of an oncoming car, he told highway patrolmen.

The Raak car crossed into the westbound lanes, two-tenths of a mile east of Pan Toll, colliding with a car driven by Frederick A. Muehleck, 27, of the Kurtz Motel in Stinson Beach.

Mueleck and a passenger, Gwendolyn I. Gimple, 34, of Stinson Beach, were treated for facial cuts and bruises at Marin General Hospital.

Marin School Officials Start On Soviet Trip

He will face customs inspectors carrying a suitcase full of records, ranging from Vaughn Monroe to the Beatles, youngsters' sewing samples, a cosmetic manufacturer's donation of lipsticks, post cards of the Civic Center, and folders on Marin.

Hollis and Supt. Milton S. Cohen of the Larkspur School District, who is on the tour with him, were chosen from candidates from throughout the United States to go on the tour sponsored by the American Assn. of School Administrators.

Hollis is paying for his own trip, with aid of monies from educational foundations; part of Cohen's trip expenses will be paid by $1,500 appropriated by the Larkspur School's District board.

The tour will center on the recent changes in Soviet education, analysis of teaching methods and class content, extracurricular activities, and observation of the Soviet version of the parent-teacher association.

As Hollis stops in Berlin, Copenhagen, Helsinki, spends two and one-half weeks in Russia, visits Warsaw and Prague, he will distribute letters from Terra Linda High School students who want pen pals in these countries.

He was asked if his daughter, Candace, a fourth grader at Reed School was sending anything overseas. She piped up: "Oh, yes, I'm sending my father."

WHAT A MOUTH I'VE GOT

"My name's Ollie—and I'm about as hungry as a four-year-old alligator can be. Can't say I have many teeth to speak of, but give me half a chance and I could sure do some damage to a few shoals of fish!" Ollie, three feet long, is the latest resident at the Louise A. Boyd Natural Science Museum in San Rafael.

Purse String Fight Affects Gas Taxes

SACRAMENTO (AP)—Assemblymen aimed today at using Gov. Brown's proposed temporary gasoline tax boost as a vehicle to reassert dwindling legislative control over state spending.

The basic substance of the gas tax bill, sources indicated, won't be the target of attack early next week when the Senate-passed measure is heard by the Assembly Ways and Means Committee.

Lawmakers—Republicans and Democrats alike — point instead toward a system of legislative control over approval of $23 million of the $58 million expected to be raised by the levy to rebuild flood-damaged roads and bridges in Northern California.

The urgency bill by Sen. Randolph Collier, D-Yreka, calls for increasing the current seven-cent-a-gallon gasoline and diesel fuel levy to eight cents, from April 1 to Dec. 31 this year. Wednesday, it came under sharp questioning but emerged from the Assembly Revenue and Taxation Committee by an unexpectedly large 17-1 margin.

However, Chairman Nicholas C. Petris, D - Oakland, referred fleetingly to amendments being worked up for when the measure comes before Ways and Means. He mentioned a legislative committee that might be put into the bill.

The aim of this, sources said, would be to require approval from a legislative committee of applications for the 40 per cent of the $58 million that will go into a Street and Highway Disaster Fund.

Congress Influencing States' Redistricting

SACRAMENTO (UPI)—A bill moving rapidly through Congress may help solve one California reapportionment problem and open up another, legislators close to the situation said today.

The bill has major implications for California, they agreed.

The assessment came from Sen. Stephen Teale, D-West Point, chairman of the Senate Reapportionment Committee; Sen. Thomas Rees, D-Los Angeles, just back from Washington on a trip for the Senate; and Assemblyman Don Allen Sr., D-Los Angeles, chairman of the Assembly Reapportionment Committee.

They said the federal measure:

Might assist in reapportioning the Senate, as a court has ordered by July 1.

The bill whipped through the House of Representatives this week on a voice vote and awaits Senate action. One main provision forbids gerrymandering.

The other provision and the one pertinent to California says that congressional districts in any state may vary no more than 15 per cent from a population figure representing exact equality of districts.

Teale and Rees said about six California congressional districts may be farther out of line than the bill allows. Allen said there were nine and added that if the bill becomes law, "There is no reason why the California Legislature cannot proceed to reapportion congressional districts at the present session."

CORTE MADERA BROCHURE OFF PRESS

A 16-page, two-color brochure, designed to show the beauties of Corte Madera, rolled off the printing presses today and will be available for distribution by the Corte Madera Chamber of Commerce next Wednesday.

The pamphlet shows photographs of homes, industry, schools, churches and public buildings in the town. It will be sold by the chamber for 15 cents a copy.

Most of the sales are expected to be made to real estate offices and banks, which will, in turn, hand them out free.

The chamber also plans distribution soon of a street map of the area and a booklet giving facts about the town.

Vandals Reported In Contractors' Yard At Novato

Vandals damaged power equipment belonging to three companies, parked behind the Novato High School shops, Tuesday night or early yesterday, Novato police reported.

Harris Bowen of 20 E. Street, San Rafael, reported the damage was to equipment belonging to Connors and Ritter Excavating Co. of San Rafael; Holtzinger Brothers of Corte Madera, and Hollis Cornell Construction Co. of Santa Rosa.

Air cleaners were broken and dirt dumped into them and into gasoline tanks and crank cases.

Yachtsmen Will Host Handicapped Children

The Sausalito Cruising Club will take 27 handicapped children, ages five to 18, on a picnic cruise to Angel Island Saturday.

Four power boats are to shove off at 11 a.m. from the clubhouse, take the youngsters to the Sausalito Harbor, under the Golden Gate Bridge and to the island for the picnic. Volunteers of the Marin County recreation program for handicapped persons, sponsored by the county board of supervisors, will accompany, according to Harry Kramer of Mill Valley, club entertainment committee chairman.

Banker Charges Plot To Ruin Him, Firm

go into the specifics of charges of fee splitting, diversion of funds to his private account, selling bank stock to borrowers at inflated prices, and "auctioning" jewelry in his office to prospective borrowers. All these have been alleged during the inquiry.

A Marin County real estate developer added his story in testimony late yesterday, with Silverthorne present in the audience.

Bradford H. McNutt of Sausalito said he and his associate, F. Bruce Bernhard of Sausalito, paid William S. Bennett, a Silverthorne associate, a $100,000 fee for his approval of a $550,000 loan from San Francisco National for development of Marin real property.

Bennett was never an official of the bank. But he had an office in the Don Silverthorne Building; and, the committee has been told, he acted as guarantor for six million dollars in loans.

Committee chairman John L. McClennan, D-Ark., asked McNutt why he signed an agreement to pay Bennett.

"I was told that Bennett was guaranteeing our loan. We issued him a second deed," said McNutt.

"Also Mr. Silverthorne said Mr. Bennett would help us in the sale of property." This, he pointed out, would entitle Bennett to a commission.

McNutt said he also signed a blank note, which he later learned was filled out for $75,500, to cover purchase of 900 shares of San Francisco National stock at $85 a share—at a time when its market price was $60 to $66.

"Mr. Silverthorne said the stock was going to continue to go up," said McNutt.

The Sausalito developer said Silverthorne also attempted to induce him to buy a $500,000 life insurance policy from Lester Weaver, a New York Life Insurance Co. representative, with a one-year premium of $11,462. He refused, he said, because his own broker had quoted him a fee of $5,865.

McNutt said he and Bernhard have signed notes totaling $879,221 as result of their transactions with San Francisco National.

"Are the notes collectible?" asked Sen. Karl E. Mundt, R-S.D.

"They are not," replied McNutt.

Even more sensational was the testimony of Morley Turner, a San Francisco real estate man. He swore he had been cheated of around $300,000 in nightmare type dealings with Silverthorne and the bank since 1962.

Turner testified that tens of thousands of dollars were withdrawn from his accounts at San Francisco National without his consent. He said he learned periodically of costly gifts for Silverthorne which were charged to the accounts. He said he also was charged large sums for purchase of stock in the bank which he never received.

Turner said he never dared to object because he was in debt to the bank.

"Did Silverthorne ever threaten to ruin you financially if you didn't continue to play ball?" asked Sen. Carl T. Curtis, R-Neb.

"Yes," the witness replied. Anyway, he added, real estate men don't sue money lenders or they get no further credit from other lenders."

"This was a daily nightmare that you never woke up from," the portly, nearly bald witness said.

HIGH SCHOOL BEARDS OUT FOR CONTEST

There'll be no beards on Novato High School students for the Novato Western Weekend beard-growing competition.

This edict was passed down this week by Principal Robert Wisgerhof.

"The school's handbook says that the boys shall be clean shaven," said Vice Principal Joseph Garguilo.

Two boys who started to grow beards were called into Garguilo's office and told to shave them off. Both complied, he said.

John Gilmore, chairman of the beard contest committee for the Novato Junior Chamber of Commerce, said his committee would go along with the high school rules, although in past years some high school students have won prizes in the beard contest.

Hub School Pay Hikes Considered

A teacher salary committee recommended raising the minimum salary from $5,208 to $5,292 and the maximum form $9,852 to $10,308 a year. Present schedule contains an annual 3.7 per cent increase. The recommended change would boost this to 6.84 per cent.

Supt. Stephen Parodi said the change, if adopted, would increase the payroll by $37,660 for the district's 75 teachers.

A classified (non-teaching) employee salary committee asked a 5.08 per cent increase. This, with normal increments already in the schedule, would add $6,883 to the payroll, Parodi said.

The salaries will be considered again April 21.

The San Anselmo School District also:

1. Deferred action on a Yolandsdale Parent Club request for portable classrooms until after the April 20 bond and state loan election.

2. Heard a report from Frank Latcham, chairman of the bond committee, on publicity planned for the election. The board is asking approval of $700,000 in bonds and a loan of $500,000 April 20.

3. Heard a request from the Marin County Labor Council that specification for cabinets in the new Red Hill School be written so that local bidders can compete.

4. Heard reports on the seventh and eighth grades curricula from Principals Richard S. Mackey of Brookside School, James W. Stinchcomb of Isabel Cook School and Donald A. Wallace of Sleepy Hollow School, and teachers William C. McConnell, Richard B. Judd and James E. French.

5. Adjourned until April 21, postponing the regular meeting one day because of the election.

Trustee Howard McKinley was absent.

DRAMA IN KINDERGARTEN

When Gerald J. Hauble's fifth graders at MacPhail School staged a play recently, their own classroom was too small for the audience expected so they moved into the kindergarten room. The San Rafael Board of Education says a multi-purpose room is needed to solve the problem. An $850,000 bond issue to finance 10 multi-purpose rooms in the elementary school district has been called for vote April 12.

SEA LION'S REPLACEMENT COST $3,800

Cost to replace the crumbling stone sea lion on Sausalito's waterfront is estimated at $3,800.

This includes cost of creating the statue in bronze by Al Sebrian of Muir Beach, sculptor of the original, and its placement on a rock in the bay off Bridgeway near Tiffany Park.

Following this report last night by George C. Hoffman to fellow Sausalito planning commissioners, the commission recommended that interested citizens and organizations take the initiative to raise funds to replace the sculpture.

$10,000 Blaze Hits Warehouse

PLEASANT HILL (AP) — A $10,000 fire destroyed part of a warehouse and kept firemen on the scene early today as small blazes still burned in the building.

Firemen contained the fire in the area of the building occupied by the Pleasant Hill Disposal Co. The loss included eight trucks, equipment and paper bales.

Firemen kept the blaze from spreading to other parts of the warehouse, located on Mayhew Road on the city limit dividing Pleasant Hill from Concord.

Marin Property Owners Form To Protect Interests

Formation of Marin Property Owners, Inc., was announced today by officers and directors chosen at its initial meeting.

Purpose of the new organization, said the announcement, will be "protecting the legitimate interests of owners of real property and businesses."

C. A. Stevens of San Rafael was elected president; Joseph E. Sheeks of Mill Valley, vice president; Charles I. Daniels Jr. of San Rafael, treasurer, and Albert Bianchi of Mill Valley, secretary.

Incorporators and initial directors, besides the officers, are E. Elmore Hutchison, Charles D. Parmelee, Waldo Giacomini, George H. Ludy, George R. Goheen Jr., A. J. Bianchi, Ronald Antonioli, Edward Halperin, Edward J. Erdelatz, Jordan L. Martinelli and Walter R. Castro Jr.

Goheen was named membership chairman.

Stevens said that although other groups in Marin have been effectively making known their points of view to the public and its officials, property owners and businessmen have had no unified voice. Marin Property Owners, Inc., will try to provide that voice, he said.

"The development and taxation of real property is cruical to Marin's economy," said Stevens. "Legitimate property interests have a right to be heard.

"We hope to work constructively with governmental agencies, conservation groups and all interested citizens to maintain and improve the present high standards of planning and development activity in Marin County."

English Contest Students Chosen

Hunting Dog Kills Infant

CARMEL VALLEY (UPI) — A 22-month-old boy was attacked and killed in his yard by a dog which is father recently acquired to use in hunting wild hogs.

Monterey County Coroner Christopher Hill Jr. identified the victim as Vincent Scardina, son of Mr. and Mrs. Peter T. Scardina. He said the child was bitten about the neck and face.

Hill said the baby apparently wandered alone from his house into a portion of the yard where Scardina kept the dog, a mongrel, tied.

The father, a carpenter, was at work at the time and the mother was inside the house with a friend.

Suspect Cleared In Attack Case

Robert Carleton Browne, 24-year-old former suspect in an alleged attack on a Sausalito cocktail waitress, was found mentally competent yesterday in a hearing before Judge N. Charles Brusatori of Marin Superior Court.

The hearing fillowed a week's committment of Browne at Napa State Hospital after he was questioned in the report of Doris Reine Bonoyer, 29, of 5 Rodeo Avenue, that he beat her and threatened her life for two days in her apartment.

Dist. Atty Bruce B. Bales repeated yesterday that no criminal charge will be filed against Browne, who said he is leaving for Chicago, Ill. Bales cited discrepancies in the waitress's story as basis for his decision.

NEW OPPOSITION FOR MARINCELLO

Conservation League Doubts Tax Benefits; Brands City 'Out Of Character' For Marin

Directors of the Marin Conservation League last night announced their stand against the Marincello development planned for southern Marin, an expected move which league members at the annual dinner heartily applauded.

League President Mary Summers of Kentfield told guests at the Peacock Gap Country Club that directors opposed the plans for the city of 25,000 persons as "out of character" with Marin.

She cited high residential density, high proportion of rental units, and high-rise buildings which she said are out of step with the rest of Marin.

The resolution also said that there has been "no confirmation by the county auditor-controller of the alleged tax benefits."

Mrs. Summers noted the league's activities for the past year, with their emphasis on "saving the bay," saying that "Marin County without its bay and shoreline really leaves no image in the soul."

She was echoed by Mrs. Margaret Wentworth Owings of Big Sur, a state park commissioner who was principal speaker.

Mrs. Owings called for "dedicated land savers" who would protect the "fragile beauty" of Marin. With references to poetry, paintings and literature, she urged the 900 families the league represents to save Marin's "topographical splendor."

Members responded to the call to conservation by voting approval by acclamation of Assembly Bill 1442, which would cut the state division of highways' powers of constructing roads through state parks, giving the state park commission more control.

Clausen Votes Against Pay Hike For Justices

Rep. Don H. Clausen, R-Crescent City, today joined a House majority to reject a pay raise for Supreme Court justices.

The House rejected the pay raise bill by a 203 to 177 vote. Voting for the pay raise were 154 Democrats and 23 Republicans. Voting against were 99 Democrats and 104 Republicans.

Appraisal May Hasten Muir Woods Annex

The Marin Conservation League has taken the first step toward having the federal government purchase about 50 acres near the entrance to Muir Woods National Monument.

Appraisers hired for $1,000 by the League have completed appraisal of the land. This week their report was given to national parks officials in San Francisco, League President Mary Summers reported.

The league stepped in to have the appraisal made to cut through red tape which delayed such a move because the government as yet has no firm plans for acquiring the land and so could not pay for an appraisal.

The land is directly east of the secondary parking lot at the monument entrance and is known as Camp Monte Vista. It is surrounded by the monument and by Mount Tamalpais State Park. It includes some houses.

Don Juan (John) Reed received the first land grant in Marin County from the Mexican Government—Corte Madera del Presidio—in 1834.

Conservation League Sets Up Local Groups

Local units of the Marin Conservation League are being formed to work on "local, neighborhood and community problems" in planning and conservation, league president Mary Summers reported last night.

Units in San Rafael, Bolinas-Stinson Beach and Mill Valley are now being formed, she told league members at the annual dinner at Peacock Gap Country Club.

Temporary officers of the San Rafael unit are Mrs. Arthur Knutson, chairman; Mrs. Harold Himmelsback, vice chairman. In the Bolinas-Stinson area, Mrs. Rhoda Boyd is chairman; Mrs. Leslie Mayne, vice chairman. The Mill Valley unit will hold its first meeting next week.

Members gave Mrs. Norman B. Livermore of Ross, who is honorary league president and for years a Marin conservation leader, a standing ovation at the dinner meeting.

They elected 28 league officers whose names were submitted by the nominating committee, all incumbents except new director Michael Mitchell, county auditor-controller.

Regent Suggests All-Campus Talk On Control Issue

BERKELE Y(AP) — A University of California regent has proposed a meeting of representatives from the nine campuses, UC President Clark Kerr and the regents to discuss ways to control campus demonstrations.

Regent Laurence J. Kennedy Jr. of Redding made the suggestion yesterday. Kennedy was the only member of a regents' committee to vote against a proposal to expel students who disrupt the campus and to fire UC employes who strike.

The committee, headed by regent Theodore R. Meyer, will meet Saturday with the Berkeley Academic Senate's Emergency Executive Committee. The findings and proposals of this confrontation will be submitted to a meeting of the board of regents March 26.

Kennedy said regulations covering demonstrations should not be based on the experiences of the Berkeley campus alone, but on those of all nine campuses.

WE'VE GONE PLACES
(To the Belvedere-Tiburon Off Ramp)

And if you're going places Saturday or Sunday come in and help us celebrate the Grand Opening of our big, new Volkswagen Sales and Service Center located right on Highway 101.

Since selling our first VW in Mill Valley 10 years ago, our business has never stopped growing . . . like Marin County. To keep up with that growth we built our new dealership a little closer to everyone and made it a lot easier to find. You just can't miss the familiar "lollipop," as we call our VW sign.

Actually, this new facility will more than triple our present service capacity and enable us to stock many more new and used VWs. (We'll also sell some pretty superior domestic cars.)

Our move has been a big one, we're proud of the results and we would like you to see them. Drop by anytime Saturday, 9 a.m. to 6 p.m., or Sunday, 11 a.m. to 5 p.m., during our Grand Opening and have a look at the latest, most modern facilities Volkswagen has to offer.

We think you'll like what you see.

Egypt's Ex-King Farouk, 45, Dies

KING FAROUK
Still on throne

EX-KING FAROUK
Shown in exile

ROME (AP) — Ex-King Farouk of Egypt, the fat, fun-loving playboy exiled by military revolution in 1952, collapsed in a Rome restaurant early today and died on the way to a hospital. He was 45.

A doctor tried to stimulate Farouk's failing heart with injections and oxygen, but he died as the ambulance pulled up at the gate of Rome's San Camillo Hospital.

COLORFUL KING

He had been one of the more colorful kings of modern times, a lusty bon vivant who spent fortunes on pleasure when he wore the crown in a land of erty.

The revolution that threw him out after 15 years eventually brought Gamel Abdel Nasser to power. Farouk left Egypt aboard the white and gilt royal yacht "Mahroussa," but he had to return it to the revolutionary government.

Farouk was dining after midnight with a woman at a plush French restaurant on the edge of Rome. He had just finished a rich meal of oysters, roast lamb, cake and fruit when he pitched forward on the table.

At the hospital, attendants found on his person a 6.35-caliber Italian automatic pistol and a pair of the dark sunglasses that he habitually wore. On his finger was a gold wedding ring and in his wallet 97,000 lire $155).

MARRIED TWICE

Farouk was married twice. His first marriage to Farida Zulfikar was dissolved in 1948 after she bore him three daughters but no sons. Only males could succeed to Moslem Egypt's throne.

In 1951 Farouk married Narriman Sadekl 19, the daughter of an Egyptian civil servant. He had seen her first in a jewelry store when she was shopping for a wedding ring with her fiance, Zaki Hashem, an Egyptian employee at the United Nations.

Queen Narriman in January 1952 bore a son who was proclaimed King Fuad II six months later after his father abdicated. Farouk took the baby into exile with him, and the monarchy ended a year later when Egypt became a republic.

Farouk was the descendant of an Albanian adventurer who founded the dynasty under the Ottoman Empire in the 19th Century.

His father, King Fuad I, died in 1936 and Farouk succeeded him under a regency at the age of 16. A year later he assumed the throne.

GREW HEAVY

Once on the throne Farouk developed a fondness for women, gambling and night clubs. He grew heavy.

At first in exile, he showed up nightly at Rome cabarets with a chorus girl or starlet in tow.

In recent years his friends dropped away. Farouk, balding and weighing close to 300 pounds, dropped into almost virtual obscurity.

There were reports that his fortune, once estimated at $50 million, had dropped to about $2 million, providing him an income of about $3,500 a month.

Farouk's four children — Princess Fadia, 21, Fawzia, 24, and Ferial, 26, and Prince Fuad, 13 — live in Switzerland.

Animal Cruelty Plea Continued

J. A. Fagundes, rancher charged with permitting a public nuisance of livestock on three ranches, was granted a continuance for plea entry until 1:30 p.m. Wednesday in a Marin Municipal Court arraignment yesterday before Judge Peter Allen Smith.

Two cases of alleged animal cruelty, scheduled for 1:30 p.m. today for filing of a demurrer, also were postponed until then.

Fagundas, 1150 Sir Francis Drake Boulevard, San Anselmo, is free on $1,000. The demurrer is for more specific identification of horses, cattle and pigs he is alleged to have improperly fed.

Rebel Leader Is Executed

CARACAS, Venezuela)ap) — A group of Venezuelan congressmen says Portuguese rebel leader Gen. Humberto Delgado, who masterminded the hijacking of the liner Santa Maria, has been executed.

The congressmen told the Chamber of Deputies' Foreign Policy Committee yesterday that Delgado and four companions were captured on Feb. 14 by Spanish authorities at Badajoz, a town on the Spanish-Portuguese frontier, and were handed over to Portuguese guards.

Delgado, they said, was immediately executed by a firing squad without a trial. The congressmen said they had no information on the fate of the others.

North Viet Targets 'Photographed By U.S.'

By FRED S. HOFFMAN

WASHINGTON (AP) — Months of careful photo reconnaissance of Communist North Viet Nam by Air Force and Navy have given U.S. officials detailed knowledge of all targets worth hitting there, sources said today.

There is official silence here about aerial scouting operations over Red North Viet Nam.

The North Vietnamese and the Communist Chinese have not complained openly about these activites.

It is known that Air Force RF101 Voodoo jets have flown over North Viet Nam at both high and low altitudes, their high-speed cameras taking thousands of pictures.

They have collected shots of troop barracks and training centers, ammunition and fuel dumps, gun positions, roads, railroads, airfields, power installations, industrial complexes and the like.

Navy F8 Crusaders and RA5C Vigilantes have taken off from U.S. carriers in the South China Sea to range along the North Vietnamese coast photographing port facilities, torpedo boat bases and other potential targets.

Pictures brought back for study by skilled photo interpreters have included possible targets in the Hanoi area and the main port of Haiphong.

U.S. reconnaissance planes are equipped with sensitive color and black and white film that can reveal camouflage, infrared film of piercing darkness, and electronic censors able to detect warning radar or gunpointing radar.

Aircraft can take clear shots from 30,000 feet aloft and higher or from close to the ground at 400 miles an hour or faster.

The 37mm antiaircraft guns, the most common weapons used by the North Vietnamese, can reach up only about 10,000 feet, experts say.

Tam Unification Hearing TV Show Set For April 12

Hearing on unification of schools in the Tamalpais High School District, filmed last month, is to be shown on television April 12 from 10 to 11 p.m.

Seven hours of hearings were filmed but Station KPIX (Channel 5) still does not have a full hour show, so it asked two members of the Marin County Committee on School District Organization to go to the studio and tape some comments.

Last night the committee selected Mrs. Betty Wallace and David D. Ring to appear on the show to fill out the hour.

The two members and Chairman Earl G. Marshall also are to view the portion of the hearings slated to go on the air and assist in preparation of the show so both sides get fair treatment.

South Vietnamese Planes Kill Hiding School Children

DA NANG, Viet Nam (UPI) —South Vietnamese warplanes killed between 20 and 30 school children Tuesday in an attack on a Communist military post seven miles south of Da Nang, it was disclosed today.

A spokesman for the Vietnamese army here said the boys and girls were crushed or suffocated when the ceiling of a cave where they had taken shelter from the planes caved in.

The spokesman blamed their deaths on the schoolmaster, whom he described as an officer of the Communist Viet Cong rebels.

He said the schoolmaster was using the same building as the Viet Cong military post and as a school.

The raid took place at Man Quang village Tuesday afternoon.

A spokesman said a Vietnamese observation plane was fired upon as it flew over the village to make a landing at Da Nang.

The plane flew back for a second look, spotted a red, blue and gold Viet Cong flag on the school flag pole, and was fired at by 12 armed men in the schoolyard.

An immediate strike was therefore ordered.

A number of Vietnamese air force Skyraiders swooped down on the schoolyard with blazing machine guns, killing 10 Viet Cong.

No children were hurt, because the Communist school master had herded them into a cave.

But the schoolmaster was wounded and the rest of the men ran in panic toward the village with the Skyraiders pursuing them with bombs as well as machine guns.

The concussion from the bombs brought down the roof of the cave.

Students Amend Election System

Terra Linda High School students voted last week to elect varsity yell and song leaders individually instead of in groups.

They also rejected two constitutional amendments that would have provided for yell and song leaders to serve for a full school year.

Yell and song leaders will continue to be elected for one-semester terms, reported Jerry Bellamy, elections commissioner.

The yell leaders will consist of the top four vote getters in an election, and the song leaders, the top eight in that election.

School-Public Relations Dominate Candidates Night

Relations between school and public appeared a principal concern of candidates for the San Rafael Board of Education at a candidates' night at Terra Linda High School last night.

The proposed San Rafael-Dixie school district unification appeared to weigh heavily with most of the candidates for the Dixie School board.

All candidates of the two districts—four for the San Rafael board and six for the Dixie board—spoke on the program, sponsored by the Terra Linda High School Parent-Teacher Assn.

Voters of San Rafael High School District (which includes San Rafael and Dixie elementary districts) will elect two members to the city board of education on April 12. Those in the Dixie district will elect three to its governing board eight days later.

Heaviest stress on school-public relations was laid by San Rafael candidates Kenneth M. Proctor and Walter R. Castro Jr. Candidate Lawrence I. Kramer Jr. called for informing "the community at large" of what board and schools are doing. Candidate Laurence B. Thomas touched only indirectly on this.

In some cases parents are not made welcome at board meetings, said Castro, and "this should not happen."

There is lack of rapport also, he charged, between the San Rafael board and its administrators. "The administration will make a very comprehensive survey regarding new emthods of teaching, and it dies at the board," he declared.

Proctor said parents should be encouraged to attend board meetings "and particularly to voice their opinions." They have not been so encouraged, he said.

Proctor called also for better parent-teacher relationships. When a student is in difficulty, he said, the parent should be called in and the teacher or counselor should advise how the parent can help. "I think this will cut our dropouts," said Proctor, "and the dropouts are the ones that get into trouble."

Kramer said that in the four years he has served on the Dixie board, "I have seen an increasing need for cooperation between the elementary schools and the high schools that they feed." He charged such cooperation is now largely lacking.

Thomas stressed need for the board to thoroughly examine proposed new educational programs.

"I'm concerned about the package deals in foreign languages and some other subjects," he said. In mathematics teaching, he declared, there are now four programs, creating confusion. "The systems are not coordinated," he charged.

Thomas said he would take no position either way at present on the unification. Kramer suggested details need more study before it is put before the voters. Castro and Proctor did not mention unification.

Among the Dixie candidates, Dr. D. Gwynn Thomson and Mrs. Dorothy C. Brown (an incumbent) came out strongly against unification, and Robert J. Guthrie came out just as strongly in favor of it. Thomas Neal McNamara referred to it as inevitable but predicted it would "create a crisis." John A. Starkweather (an incumbent) and Wendell B. Freeman made no reference to it.

Dr. Thomson said Dixie district's "largest problem is that of keeping up with our fantastically growing population. . . . We are growing 10 times faster than any other district in the county."

Unification with San Rafael, he contended, might imperil financing of future school buildings. "I feel the San Rafael electorate would be unresponsive to raising their taxes to build our schools out here."

Paul L. Jones, a Dixie District resident, asked from the audience: "Does Dr. Thomson know where the money came from for the high school where he's speaking tonight and who voted for it?"

Thomson replied it was true the San Rafael High School District (the same electorate as the proposed unified district) had voted bonds to build Terra Linda High; but he noted that San Rafael school bond measures have sometimes failed to pass. None in Dixie district ever has failed.

Starkweather cited his experience on the Dixie board and the fact it has put up new schools rapidly enough to match the population growth. He said there are "a number of young programs which have great potential" which are just getting started in the district. Among these he cited special teacher and resource teacher programs, foreign languages, and expansion of the music program, which has just added stringed instruments.

Mrs. Brown, also citing her experience, made a point that at Dixie board meetings "each parent is welcome."

She noted there are legal questions regarding the unification as it was approved by the state board of education. "I cannot support this particular unification," she said.

McNamara cited his three years on Dixie district's citizen finance committee, which he said this year "has devoted its entire time to unification."

He predicted a crisis "caused by growth and unification" within the next few years, and remarked that rapport among board, teachers and public might be more difficult in a larger district.

Guthrie took the opposite view, saying that "by unification we will regain citizen control." He noted also that Dixie taxes should be reduced by unification.

Guthrie proposed "concentrated study through use of advisory committees" on some system of merit pay to reward superior teachers. Asked from the audience if he would favor merit pay if the teachers did not want it, he replied that of course he "would not force it on them."

Freedman said the school board's responsibilities fall into three categories: plant, personnel and curriculum. He cited his experience as an engineer and in management with General Electric Co. as qualifying him to deal with the first two.

Curriculum, he said, "is the prime responsibility of your professional educators." But the trustees should inquire closely into each new proposal and evaluate it against the district's resources before allowing its introduction, he declared.

Included in the cast are Gloria Richfield, Bibi Baer, Willi Newhaus, Sylvia Greenberg, Janet Griesbach, Carter Cohen, Henry Biggers, Hirsch Lurie, Paul Winton, Mel Berman, Norman Kemp, Ken Levy, Stuart Sipkin and Martin Roth.

County-City Meeting Set On Recreation

Marin County supervisors will meet with city officials at 9 a.m. Saturday at the Civic Center for a review of the county's proposedrecreation master plan.

City councilmen, planning commissioners and park and recreation commissioners from cities have been invited to attend the session at which Planner Horchler will present the plan.

U.S. Cannot Afford To Lose War In South Viet Nam, Writer Says

The war in Viet Nam is one we cannot afford to lose, Washington editor Stewart Alsop told a crowd of 200 at College of Marin last night.

Alsop said the rest of Southeast Asia would be lost to the communists very soon if the United States should abandon the struggle in Viet Nam.

From a moral viewpoint, moving out of Viet Nam would be an "ignoble act" and would mean the people who have committed themselves in the battle against the Viet Cong would be "all through."

Alsop, referring occasionally to notes from a recent tour of Viet Nam, expounded the thesis that the war is one the United States can carry as a burden for a long time. The Vietnamese also can fight on for several years if they have hope, he said. But the communist Viet Cong cannot continue unless they keep getting fresh manpower from the north, he contended.

He based these conclusions on the killed in action figures of the past year. There were 141 U.S. troops killed, 7,000 Vietnamese and 17,000 Viet Cong, he said.

The Viet Cong figure represents a 17 per cent loss while the Viet Nam figure represents a 2 per cent loss, according to Alsop's figures.

In terms of both resources and manpower, the United States can carry the burden of the war indefinitely, provided it gets no larger, the veteran news columnist and editor said.

Alsop talked for some time about the attitude of our men in Viet Nam. He claimed they are all professionals and they all volunteered.

"All the Americans I met were reasonably cheerful," he said. "They are happy in a curious way."

"They are professionals and they are doing a good job. We don't have to feel sorry for our men."

Then he said that the United States is not really fighting the war, just advising the Viet Nam army.

Alsop said the steps toward victory in Viet Nam are first to stop the flow of men and arms from the north, then localize the Viet Cong so there can be some measure of control, and finally establish a stable government.

"It is fatuous to suppose that one can have a liberal democracy in such a situation. What's needed is a military dictatorship," he asserted.

A strong leader is not available, he said. But all political leaders, even those in the small villages, must be very brave men, because as soon as they take office, they are marked for execution by the Viet Cong.

Alsop, who is Washington editor for the Saturday Evening Post, entitled his talk "Report on World Conditions." The talk, part of College of Marin's Concert-Lecture Series, was mostly on Viet Nam.

Recalling a 1950 interview with Winston Churchill, he said Churchill's theory of "mutual terror" as a foundation for peace seems to be proving sound.

The editor, at least, had some hope for it, saying no nation with rational leader would willingly start a nuclear war.

He said that Russia appears to have become more and more rational since the end of the Stalinist era. Red China, however, is a real problem, he said.

"Khrushchev has always said these people are crazy," Alsop said. "If he's right, we'd be in bad trouble."

Statehouse Emptied By Bomb Threat

PHOENIX (AP)—A bomb threat emptied the Arizona statehouse today, sending busy legislators out. Less than two hours later, the session was back to normal.

Fifty police and state patrolmen searched the House and Senate buildings and the Capitol itself without finding a bomb.

LAURA RITTER
To Germany for summer

Coed Named For Summer In Germany

It's going to be a very special holiday for Laura Ritter this summer. She has been chosen as Terra Linda High School's student ambassador to Germany under the Experiment in International Living program.

In her two months abroad Laura, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Ritter of 916 Del Ganado Road, Terra Linda, will live with a German family and will then be given a four-week tour of the country.

In February, the International Student Exchange Committee of Terra Linda Parents announced that Laura had been selected as an alternate to Kathy Hanson on the exchange scholarship to Sweden. But the Experiment headquarters has now agreed both girls may be given a trip.

SPACE MILESTONE

Russ Meets One Of Four 'Musts'

By HOWARD BENEDICT

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP) — When Lt. Col. Alexei Leonov stepped into the vastness of space, as announced by the Soviet news agency Tass today, he practiced one of four major techniques which still must be perfected before either a Soviet or an American ventures to the moon.

Tass said the feat occurred 90 minutes after Leonov hurtled into space with Col. Pavel Belyayev in the Voskhod 2 spacecraft.

If a man is to step onto the moon he must have a space suit and personal life support system capable of sustaining him and protecting him from the hostile elements of space — including fast-flying meteoroids and the extremes of heat and cold on the lunar surface.

The other three techniques which must be developed are a maneuverable spacecraft, sustaining man for long periods in space, and rendezvous and docking with other satellites.

The United States does not intend to expose an astronaut to the elements of space until late this year. Neither country has attempted the other three procedures.

All four are goals of the U.S. Gemini program, which is to set sail here next Tuesday with the three-orbit flight of astronauts Virgil I. Grissom and John W. Young.

Their "Gemini 3" capsule has been billed as the world's first maneuverable spacecraft, and it will be unless Voskhod 2 can change its course. There was no evidence that it had done so in the early portion of flight.

There was no immediate official comment from the astronauts or flight controllers on the latest Soviet feat.

A National Aeronautics and Space Administration spokesman said any initial comment would have to come from officials in Washington after the flight had been assessed.

However, officials contacted said unofficially the flight showed the United States still trails the Soviets by at least two years in the man-in-space race.

They said it might prove embarrassing if Voskhod 2 still is in orbit next week when Grissom and Young take off on their relatively brief flight.

Independent-Journal
San Rafael, California
January, 1964

Statement of Policy

Regarding Political Advertising

The Independent-Journal does not aggressively solicit or render copy writing service for political advertisements that are argumentative in content. Political advertisements are construed to be all assertions subject to public controversy, whether or not a public election is involved.

Any political advertisement that is not clearly the personal appeal of the elective candidate or candidates involved must show the name of the sponsoring group together with the name or names of one or more persons officiating for such group and their address.

Political advertisements must be submitted in complete and explicit form, ready for the printers, and clearly marked as to size and date of appearance. All political advertisements are payable in advance. Charges are figured at the regular rate.

Advertising deadlines are 4 p.m., two days preceding publication. As examples: Tuesday advertisements must be in Friday at 4 p.m.; Monday advertisements must be in the preceding Friday morning. Any intervening holiday advances the deadline by a day.

No responsibility to show printer's proof is assumed under the above schedule.

If a proof is desired, advertisement must be submitted substantially in advance. Corrections, if any, must be ordered by 4 p.m., two working days preceding publication. Any changes from original copy will be charged for on basis of printing work involved.

On the last publication day before an election no political advertisement other than a simple statement of advocacy will be printed. As example: "Vote yes on proposition three," or "Elect John Jones," together with facts as to nature and time of election and, if desired, candidate's party affiliation or occupational identity.

Nearing a public election, no advertisement introducing a new controversial subject will be accepted to run later than the fourth publication day preceding the election. If any new statement or issue should be introduced on the fourth publication day preceding the election, attacking the opposing candidate or issue involved, the newspaper may, at its discretion, make allowance under this rule for the opposing side to answer.

Necessity for the newspaper's disinterested handling of political advertisements is readily apparent. These terms and conditions are adhered to in spirit of fairness to all.

Which Dollars Abroad Hurting?

By SAM DAWSON

NEW YORK (AP) — Just which U.S. dollars going abroad are good for the country and which are causing trouble? A wide difference of opinion is developing, both in the Congress and in the business and banking community.

The administration is asking U.S. banks to limit loans to foreigners and U.S. corporations to curtail investments in other lands — but just certain kinds of investments and not in all lands.

The administration says this may cut down the excess outflow of dollars which over the last seven years has caused a drain on U.S. gold reserves and caused some nations, notably France, to question the role of the dollar as ranking with gold in the monetary reserves of other countries.

Critics of the plan for voluntary cutting down of private overseas investments by Americans charge that this would push the United States into economic isolation.

And the widening split in the thinking on how best to bolster the dollar and keep more of them at home comes out in the open with the filing this week of the annual report of the Joint House-Senate Economic Committee.

Democrats on the group want to save the dollar by the program the administration has launched, but also by cutting the number of U.S. troops in Europe, especially in France.

The Republicans say private investment abroad, over the long run, returns more dollars than are sent out. Such investments make the American economy strong, they contend, and aren't the real cause of the excess flow of dollars overseas. They think government spending is.

They also contend that the better way to stop excess dollar outflows, such as in the final months of 1964, would be to raise interest rates here. This would narrow the gap between the yield from money invested in this country and the return on dollars invested at the higher interest rates obtaining in almost all other lands.

Irish Plant To Be Leased

NEW YORK — Walker Manufacturing Co., a subsidiary of Kern County Land Co., announced today plans to lease an 85,000 square foot plant at Newtownbreda on the outskirts of Belfast, Northern Ireland.

Market Closes Mixed After Active Trading

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market closed mixed today in moderately active trading.

Cigarette stocks were weak in view of the proposed doubling of the cigarette tax in New York State.

Rubbers did well and there was strength in a variety of issues.

IBM also added a couple of points. U.S. Steel eased.

Chrysler and General Motors were fractional gainers.

Anaconda and Caterpillar lost a point or so.

Volume for the day was estimated at 5 million shares compared with 5.13 million yesterday.

Cigarette manufacturers widened their losses in late afternoon as they reacted increasingly to the proposal to double taxes on cigarettes in New York State.

Down a point or so were Reynolds Tobacco and American Tobacco. Lorillard and Liggett & Myers lost nearly a point.

Cigar stocks showed no corresponding rise, in fact they lost a bit on balance, with some issues unchanged.

Group leadership was lacking. What trading interest there was seemed strictly on an individual basis.

Rubbers were up a little on balance. U.S. Rubber rose about a point, Goodrich more than a point.

Up about 2 were Xerox, Pennzoil and Fibreboard Paper.

Ahead a point or more were IBM, Time Inc., Texas Instruments, KLM Airlines and Fairchild Camera.

Caterpillar was down more than a point.

Prices were mixed in moderate trading on the American Stock Exchange.

Tree Firm Gets U.S. Contract

FRB Tree Service Inc. of Miller Avenue, Mill Valley, is among the 112 small business firms who were awarded contracts last month by various government purchasing agencies.

The Mill Valley firm's tree removal contract is for $8,400.

Bright Areas In Job Picture

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Labor Department says increases in employment in major construction and manufacturing industries were the bright areas in an otherwise spotty job picture in February.

The department issued detailed figures to support preliminary data which showed that the number of jobless persons increased to 4.2 million in February for an unemployment rate of 5 per cent. This compared with a 5.4 per cent rate in February, 1964.

The department also reported that the prospering U.S. economy provided about 1.5 million new jobs in the past year, more than keeping pace with an expanding labor force, which rose to 69.5 million workers last month.

National Airline Earnings Up

MIAMI — National Airlines net income for February set a one month operating profit record, and income for the eight months ended February exceeded fiscal 1964 earnings.

Net income of $1,706,000 for February was a gain of 158 per cent over the same month a year ago and surpassed the previous one month operating profit record of $1,591,000 set in January 1965.

The record earnings equalled 88 cents per share on 1,931,000 outstanding shares at Feb. 28, compared to 37 cents per share on 1,779,000 shares outstanding Feb. 29, 1964.

Freightway Earnings Up

SAN FRANCISCO — Consolidated Freightways has reported net earnings of $428,000 in February, equal to 17 cents per share, on sales of $17,704,000.

Year to date earnings are $775,000, equal to 30 cents a share. Sales total $35,413,000.

In the first two months of last year the company earned $359,000, or 14 cents per share, on sales of $31,549,000. In February a year ago, earnings were $230,000, or 9 cents per share, on sales of $14,812,000.

Warriors NBA's All-Time Losers

ST. LOUIS (AP) — Because they ran into a team they couldn't beat all season, the San Francisco Warriors now own the National Basketball Association record for losses.

The St. Louis Hawks, who didn't lose once to the Warriors in 10 games, beat San Francisco yesterday 101-94.

It was the 63rd loss in 7[illegible] games this season for San Francisco breaking the old mark o[illegible] 62 set by the Chicago Packers in 1961-62.

The Warriors go to Los Angeles for the last game of the regular season Saturday and with a good chance to upset the Western Division champion Lakers, who are playing without the full services of ailing stars Elgin Baylor and Jerry West.

The second - place Hawks grabbed a 61-39 halftime lead Wednesday and never were seriously threatened thereafter. But the Warriors' Guy Rodgers reeled off 14 straight points in the third period that made the final score respectable and contributed to his high-point total of 22.

Player-coach Richie Guerin led the well-balanced Hawks with 16 points and veteran Cliff Hagan chipped in 15.

In case the Warriors, who won the Western Division last year, are looking for solace for the next season, they can remember those old Chicago Packers. They moved to Baltimore and became the Bullets, assured of a playoff berth this season because of their third-place finish in the Western Division.

Has Garibaldi Conquered Arm Trouble?

Bonus Hurler Looks Good In First Test

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP)—Bob Garibaldi, the $150,000 bonus pitcher with San Francisco's Giants, has successfully passed the first test in his comeback after sore arm troubles.

The 6-foot 5-inch ex-collegian from Santa Clara University hurled two shutout innings yesterday as the Giants walloped Boston's Red Sox 17-2 in their Cactus League baseball exhibition.

It was his first mound appearance since last Aug. 14 when he was forced out of action with the Giants' Pacific Coast League farm club at Tacoma with the sore arm problem.

The 66-year-old pitching teacher commented, "I'm pleased with what I saw. He was throwing free and easy. He got over a good change of pace and while his curve was a little slow, it was thrown with a motion that never is going to cause arm trouble."

Signed in 1962 for the big bonus, Garibaldi was 12-13 at Tacoma in 1963 but only 2-1 there last year.

Shellenback, who was called out of semi-retirement to help with young pitchers this spring, added, "Bob's primary concern is worry about hurting his arm. He has nothing to fear if he continues to throw that way. If he returns to the stiff-back delivery he could hurt himself."

Garibaldi found Shellenback's comments reassuring but added, "I'll wait and see how my arm feels tomorrow."

MAYS STARS

The Giants hammered five Bosox pitchers for 18 hits, including two singles and a double by Willie Mays who knocked in four of the runs.

Boston's two markers came in the first inning on a homer by Tony Conigliaro, with Eddie Bressoud on base. Ron Herbel was the victim of the homer but he settled down and worked four innings to gain the win — the third for San Francisco in four spring outings.

The Giants faced the Los Angeles Angels today with Jack Sanford due to get his second spring outing. Sanford, who underwent an arm operation in mid - season last year, looked strong in his opening appearance against Cleveland.

Boston's Jack Lamabe, Bill Stanswick, Jay Richie, Arnold Earley and Bob Heffner were the victims of the Giant batting barrage. Each yielded hits.

FOOTBALL WILL NEVER FORGET AMOS A. STAGG

STOCKTON (AP)—Amos Alonzo Stagg died yesterday at the age of 102, yet his contributions to football must live as long as there is a game.

The pioneer All America who coached 70 years, 41 of them at the University of Chicago, succumbed to uremia in a rest home. He had lived there since 1962, just two years after failing eyesight forced his final retirement.

Funeral services will be held at 2 p.m. Sunday in Stockton's Central Methodist Church with inurnment near his beloved wife, Stella, who died last July 22.

Students from Amos Alonzo Stagg High School will hold a special memorial service tomorrow at the University of the Pacific stadium.

A star baseball pitcher and football end at Yale, Stagg became the University of Chicago's first coach in 1892 and held the post until he reached mandatory retirement age in 1932. Instead of accepting an honorary post, Stagg became, at 70, the football coach of Pacific.

COACH OF THE YEAR

In 1943, Stagg's team lost only to the University of Southern California and the Football Coaches Association named him Coach of the Year at 81. He also is a member of Football's Hall of Fame.

Lynn O. Waldorf, former president of the coaches association, declared, "I don't know anyone who contributed more to football and I don't know anyone who enjoyed the absolute respect of his associates more than Mr. Stagg."

Born at West Orange, N. J., Aug. 16, 1862, before football was invented, Stagg attended Exeter Academy and then Yale. He studied for the ministry but gave up that ambition when he felt his voice not suited to preaching.

"I felt specially called to preach," he recalled, "but I decided to do it on the football field."

He demanded clean living and didn't smoke or drink. In deference to his longstanding rules, no liquor was served at his 100th birthday celebration, a large civic banquet in Stockton in 1962. Former players were known to have ground out cigarettes in their hands rather than let their ex-coach know they smoked.

After 41 years at Chicago and 15 at Pacific, he assisted his elder son, Amos Alonzo Jr., for six years at Susquehanna in in Pennsylvania and later became advisory coach at Stockton College, a two-year school.

SON RETIRED

Amos Alonzo Jr. has retired from coaching and is a business executive in Chicago. Another son, Paul, is athletic director at Pacific. A daughter, Mrs. Ruth S. Lauren, lives in Chicago. Seven grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren also survive.

Stagg helped form the Big Ten Conference and in 1905 coached Chicago's conference championship teams in football, track, baseball and basketball.

He helped bring about the T formation, wingback formations, forward pass, huddle, man-in-motion and the numbering of football jerseys.

In 1905, when foes charged football was too brutal, Stagg successfully fought for retention of the sport in a conference called by President Theodore Roosevelt.

Stagg, himself, had been

CONNOLLY

PHOENIX— "If everybody plays his game, which everybody didn't do last year, and we can stay away from injuries, the club could be good enough to win the 1965 National League pennant."

That's the voice of Herman Franks, new Giant manager as we chatted yesterday in Phoenix.

"Naturally I'm fairly optimistic about our chances," Herman said. "Consideration has to be given to a couple of big IFS. Jack Sanford, for one, is vitally important. He looks good, seems confident, cheerful. Still the staff would be greatly weakened if he didn't comeback with at least 15 victories for the season."

The Giant manager is very popular with his players and certainly will make it a lot more pleasant for newspapermen. I have a hunch he is going to do all right in a public relations way.

Another important cog in the success of the 1965 Giants has to concern Willie McCovey.

"When he's hitting, runs are a lot easier to get," Franks declares. "We haven't too many extra outfielders, so if McCovey is hitting up to his potential, our worries will be considerably lessened."

ONE OF the real problems of the Giant skipper will come when he has to trim the squad.

"We have three bonus kids—outfielders Ken Henderson, and the two young infielders, Bob Holbert and Bob Shroder," explains Herman. "Between them they collected nearly a quarter of a million dollars in bonus money. We have to keep two of them; only one can be farmed out as a designated player.

"I'm huddling with my coaches on the players we're considering to cut from the squad. In the fringe class we have Chuck Hiller, Charley Peterson, a young catcher and possibly Bob Shaw.

"Catchers—Tom Haller and Ed Bailey.

"Pitchers — Juan Marichal, Jack Sanford, Gaylord Perry, Bob Hendley, Al Stanek, Bob Bolin, Ron Herbel, Jim Duffalo, Bob Priddy and possibly Dick Estelle. That leaves Shaw, Bob Garibaldi and Frank Linzy out of the picture as of now.

"Any 10 of my pitchers should be sufficient, but it is going to be tough for me to choose the last three or four.

"Incidentally, I'm counting on Perry as a big plus item. He got to be quite a pitcher last year and we look for him to be a big winner this season."

IT IS the bonus babies—Henderson, Holbert and Shroder along with a catcher named Jack Hiatt whom the Giant skipper worried about. They are his big "ifs." Naturally it is too early to talk seriously about them but from what I am able to gather, Henderson is a little extra. He has a lot of playing tools. He made a distinct impression in the rookie league last fall. What he lacks is experience. The main question is, Can he hit major league pitching? From all accounts he is a brilliant outfielder who can run and throw. But whether he can make it right from the kick-off is something we'll have to wait for, and watch.

Marin Mile Star Wins At Davis

Ketron was the lone Tar winner, capturing first place in the mile with a 4:40.4 clocking. The former Drake High School runner also took third in the two-mile, with a time of 10:29.0.

Guy Burns placed second in the discus with a heave of 127 feet, 8 inches; Bill Nelson was third in the broad jump, leaping 20 feet, ⅛ inch, and Rich Congdon was fourth in the shot put, throwing the iron ball 43 feet, 4 inches.

It was the first meet for the Tars who have been rained out twice.

Four junior colleges, plus Cal Aggies frosh competed in the meet. Next action for the Marin tracksters will be Saturday at the Golden Valley Conference Relays in Santa Rosa.

Lowest daily double payoff during Yonkers, N. Y., harness racing in 1964 was $8 last June 16 when horses returning $2.80 and $4.80 won the first two races.

Casper III, Quits Play, Heads 'Home'

Billy Casper, now playing out of Peacock Gap Golf Club of San Rafael, had to bow out of the Jacksonville Open because of an allergic reaction from something he ate.

Casper, one of golf's leading money winners, was one of the favorites in the $50,500 tourney which started today. But he became ill during a pro-am round yesterday on the Jacksonville, Fla., course, and couldn't finish. Casper was to fly to Chicago today for a complete checkup at a clinic specializing in allergy ailments.

After the checkup, Casper, who lives in San Diego, will leave for Marin County and Peacock Gap. A Billy Casper day at the San Rafael links will be held Tuesday. He will compete in an 18-hole exhibition round and head a clinic for junior golfers. The exhibition round will start at 1 p.m., and the clinic at 5 p.m.

Is UCLA Better Than '64 Champ?

PORTLAND, Ore. (AP) — All season long UCLA Coach John Wooden has been asked if this Bruin basketball team is as good as or better than the one that copped the national championship last season.

He hasn't given a "yes," "no" or even "maybe" answer yet and it doesn't look like he's going to.

"Different," says John Wooden.

"Probably as good, maybe better," says Forrest Twogood, who qualified as an expert on the grounds that his Southern California team was beaten three times by each of the UCLA teams in question.

The Bruins, though ranked second in the nation behind Michigan have been established the early favorite by coaches to win a second straight title in the tourney beginning tomorrow.

They take the tourney's best record, 26-2, into the semifinal game against unranked Wichita, 21-7 at 9 p.m., PST. Mighty Michigan, 23-3, plays unranked Princeton, 22-5, in the other Friday semifinal at 7 pm., PST with the winners moving into the nationally televised final game Saturday, starting at 7 p.m. PST.

But back to the question of UCLA.

"It's impossible to answer," Wooden says. "We were a good team last year, maybe one of the best in college history. We didn't have a single bad game.

"This year's team is different. It's more of an up-and-down team. It shoots better. But it doesn't capitalize on the press, on the mistakes we force, as well as last year's team.

"The one thing this team has is balance. They are good in all respects. They break, shoot and rebound well. And they don't panic. They don't try to catch up in a hurry, when we get behind.

"We seem to handle adversity well, and we play well when we get in trouble. I'm real proud of this team, regardless what we do in the finals."

Twogood was a little more lavish in his comments.

"They're fast and they can kill you," he said. "I've seen them run off 15 points in a minute while you're still trying to get the ball in bounds."

Wooden has gone with his regular starting line-up of 6-1 guards Gail Goodrich and Freddie Goss, and a front line of Doug McIntosh and Edgar Lacey, each 6-6, and 6-5 Keith Erickson most of the season, But he insists it is a seven-man team.

"I can and do play Kenny Washington (6-3) at either forward or guard and Mike Lynn (6-7) goes in for McIntosh at center."

Goodrich is one of three All-Americas in the tourney. The others are 6-6 Cazzie Russell of Michigan and Player of the Year Bill Bradley of Princeton.

They're scheduled for a rematch in the first game of the tourney. Cazzie scored 26 points and Bradley 41 the first time they played this season in the semifinals of the Holiday Festival Tourney in New York.

Bradley sparked Princeton to a 12-point lead when he fouled out with 3½ minutes to go. Cazzie led the Michigan comeback, that won it, hitting a 20-foot jump shot with three seconds to go for an 80-78 victory.

Drysdale Double Threat; Mets On Winning 'Streak'

By HAL BOCK
Associated Press Sports Writer

Don Drysdale, who is something less than enthusiastic about the hitting support he and other members of the Los Angeles Dodger pitching staff sometimes get, is dedicated to doing something about it.

Drysdale is using baseball's exhibition season to sharpen more than his arm. The lanky Dodger right-hander figures that a pitcher can help himself almost as much with his bat as with his arm, especially with the light-hitting Dodgers.

It was last June when Drysdale left the club on business and his buddy Sandy Koufax hurled his third career no-hitter. Don, upon learning of the feat, dryly asked, "did he win?"

Drysdale wasn't exactly a terror at the plate himself last year. He batted .173 with two doubles, one homer and eight runs batted in.

But he's ready to pick up the slack this season. He proved that yesterday when he doubled home two runs in a five-run second inning that started Los Angeles to a 6-4 exhibition victory over Minnesota.

More gratifying for the Dodgers than Drysdale's double was the continued strong hitting by Tommy Davis, who must carry the offensive load if Los Angeles is to move up in the National League standings.

Davis, who won two straight batting crowns before slipping to .275 last year, drove in two runs and continued to show the form that produced averages of .346 in 1962 and .326 in 1963. He has six hits in his first 11 swings this spring.

Relief pitcher Bob Miller struck out five batters in two innings and teamed with Drysdale, Johnny Podres and Charlie Spell for the four-hitter.

METS STREAK

The New York Mets made it two in a row against the Cincinnati Reds. Casey Stengel's club, which won its first spring game against Cincinnati's B squad Tuesday, routed the varsity 7-4 yesterday.

Dean Chance went six innings allowing just two unearned runs and six hits but a late Chicago rally gave the Cubs a 5-4 victory over the Los Angeles Angels.

Homers by Jim Beauchamp and Bob Aspromonte highlighted a 13-hit Houston attack as the Astros strafed Washington 10-4. Beauchamp and Aspromonte each drove in three runs.

Jerry Lumpe had three hits against his former teammates, the Kansas City Athletics, as Detroit squared the exhibition series between the two clubs with a 7-3 triumph.

The New York Yankees suffered their first loss afetr five spring victories, dropping a 3-1 decision to Milwaukee. Tony Cloninger, Wade Blasingame and Hank Fischer combined to limit the American League champions to five hits.

Pittsburgh topped St. Louis 6-4. Gene Freese poked a two run homer for the Pirates and Bob Skinner connected with a man aboard for the Cardinals.

Seals Lose, 3-1; Playoff Chances Getting Slimmer

By United Press International

Everything was going right for the Portland Buckaroos today. They have won seven games in a row and their old jinx team, San Francisco, looks as though it won't make it to the Western Hockey League playoffs.

Portland jumped off to a 4-0 lead in the first period and sailed on to an 8-3 win over Victoria Wednesday night before 6,956 home fans.

Art Jones and Tommy McVie each had two goals and two assists and Gerry Goyer had four assists for the Buckaroos. McVie's two goals probably iced the league championship in that department for him.

Victoria's loss meant that San Francisco could have jumped into fourth with a win. But the Seals entertained second-place Seattle and lost, 3-1, before only 3,171, smallest hockey crowd at the Cow Palace since 1962.

It was 1-1 after two periods, but then Jim Powers scored at 8:34 and Seattle pished another goal into the empty net with 21 seconds to go.

The Seals have knocked Portland out of the Western Hockey League playoffs the last two seasons. The first place Bucks would just as soon not meet the Seals this time around and it seems they won't have to.

It's Racing Season And Marin Club Is Off To A Fast Start

It's ski racing season, not only for the international set, but for the local groups. Marin Ski Club members will be ready at Sugar Bowl this Saturday for Oakland Ski Club's Bill Freitas Memorial Race. They are hoping to keep up the fine record set last weekend, when the club team beat representatives of Berkeley Ski Club by the time of 2 minutes, 23.5 seconds vs: 3:35.3 for Berkeley. There were 20 racers from each club, with winning time compiled from the totals of the top five men and three women on each team.

Best times from Marin were. Al Desmond, 40.9 seconds; Scotty Watterworth, 41.9; Alan Best, 43.3; Barry Evergettis, 46.8; Neal Martin, 47.7; Joy Best, 48.5; Claire Gannon, 49.5; and Millie Culbertson, 58.0.

THE COURSE was a giant slalom with 25 gates, on McTavish Run, with packed powder snow on a beautiful sunny day. The Berkeley club set up the race and was host to Marin members the night before for dinner at their lodge nearby at Lake Van Norden. This is the tenth year of this annual race, and contestants this time trained by dancing the skier's version of the twist the night before, according to Scotty Watterworth.

THIS SUNDAY, Sugar Bowl will stage the Eagle Trails, open to all skiers who wish to race against the clock. The course will be laid out from the top of Disney, across the top of Market Street, to the top of Donald Duck, down the Eagle Schuss to Lone Pine, then to the bottom of Disney Lift. Whoever makes it in less than a minute earns a diamond eagle pin and a bottle of champagne. Skiers who are not that fast can earn bronz, silver or gold eagles, depending on their times.

ON MARCH 28, Marin S. C. will host the Santa Rosa S. C. for a giant slalom at Sugar Bowl. On April 3, MSC members will have their own club race, and the next day will be the Trader Vic Tiki Trophy Race, complete with palm trees and pineapple punch, we understand. Watterworth has invested in a pair of new Red Star skies, with ideas of going faster than ever.

DICK DAVIS, who went to the international races at Vail last week, reminds us that it's not smart to get on the ski race course. A junior racer on the U. S. team came flying down the hill at an estimated 60 mph and collided with an unwary skier in a two-person eggbeater better than Billy Kidd's. Just by pure luck, neither was injured. Dick was checking the performance of the Sohler Blue Bird skis being tested by the U. S. team. The skis and skiers did well, but opinion was that the wax mixture was not right for the new snow, which fell overnight.

Of all the 5,000 spectators, who did he run into? Bill Young the skiing photographer, who is our neighbor at Soda Springs, and who has been checking the action at Aspen and Vail.

A Rugged Ordeal For Ken Venturi

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. (AP) — "It's disheartening," said National Open champion Ken Venturi. "I lose so much distance because of the lack of strength in my right hand."

Back on the tour, but playing very little like the Ken Venturi who had a banner 1964 in golf, he is hoping to return to top form for the Masters Tournament at Augusta in three weeks.

Two weeks ago at Pensacola he withdrew when the weather turned cool. He failed to survive the cut after 36 holes of the Doral at Miami last week.

This will be his last tourney until the Masters, he said.

"I will exercise and practice for three weeks," he said. "Right now, my right hand is sore from the hand exercises I'm taking.

"I can't grip the club hard enough with that hand or it begins to quiver," he went on. "And I'd like to hit a few balls in practice, but if I did, I'd be no good when I play."

But with the right hand so weak, "I can't force the club the way I would like to. I lose so much distance."

In a pro-am Wednesday, he shot 75, three over par.

The FISHIN' FOOL

By RALPH STEVENS
I-J Fish and Game Writer

Striper Striving Confined To Both Sides Of San Pablo Bay

STEVENS

Congratulations to Andy Sears for the limit of salmon he took while trolling with his pal, Walt McKinnon aboard the good ship Whirlaway. My sympathy to Walt, who caught four fish but all undersized. I understand Skipper Ray of the Whirlaway drove first to the Point Reyes area, found little action, and back tracked to the area between the Light Ship and Double Point. Twenty-two salmon landed, all legal but small.

AL SMITH, who, with Bill Beckett, operates the Richmond Sport Fishing Center, called to report the Paul G having a few field days with salmon limits, mostly taken in the Point Reyes area. "Been getting limits about every time out," reported Al. "Lots of jellyfish but managed to outwit the pests. Fish mostly small but at least one weighed in at 30 pounds."

I understand that the Paul G hunts salmon every day except Saturday when it goes to the Farallones for rockfish. Al Smith did report one thing that interested me. "Caught the fish on Andy Reeker Spoons No. 5, and quick frozen anchovies."

AS EXPECTED, striper striving was more or less confined to the San Pablo Bay. On the Marin side, China Camp and Joe's Launching at Santa Venetia did quite well despite rather adverse weather and water conditions. About as many blanked or had to be satisfied with less than the legal three fish, but those who hit took nice fish to the 16-20 pound class.

There is no question but what there are plenty of stripers in San Pablo Bay on both the Marin and Contra Costa sides. Probably more large fish are being caught on bullheads, but cut or filleted sardines, anchovies and pile worms, along with glass shrimps, have taken and will continue to take their share. Carl Bennett of the Rodeo Marina reported fair to good striper fishing with the anglers who waited for the proper stage of the tide late in the day having very good luck.

FOR EXAMPLE: A Centoni and Nish Yamamoto took 5 bass that averaged 15 pounds each near Buoy 5 on bullheads; R. L. Myers of Hayward worked Buoy 7 and netted his legal trio to 18 pounds on bullheads; Sal and Margaret Gianamobile, with 4-year-old son, boated 7 bass on Saturday and 6 on Sunday from 14 to 30 pounds. Bennett reported about 2½ fish per rod from skiffs and party boats. "Best bets seem to have been in 10-12 feet of water this side of the Radar Screen," said Carl, and added: "Another run of sturgeon at present. Mostly populating water about 6 feet. Some nice ones, too! To 65 pounds."

The hands of my barometer are insisting we are in for FAIR WEATHER, so goodbye, good luck, and go get 'em!

'Relationship Between Athletics, Leadership'

DALLAS (AP) — There is a definite relationship between boyhood physical activity and later social and emotional maturity, the chief of the West Point physical education program said yesterday.

"Our studies show that there must be a 'cause and effect' relationship between leadership development and physical activity during early boyhood days," said Col. Frank J. Kobes.

"Extensive and strenuous physical activity with peer groups is an essential requirement through the boyhood experiences of West Point candidates for attaining the social and emotional maturity, as well as the physical growth and development, to withstand the strains and rigors of the West Point program," he said.

Studies have shown, for instance, that cadets who participated in athletics before coming to the military academy tended to have stronger leadership potential.

"The athletes are significantly more good natured and ready to cooperate, emotionally mature and realistic about life, enthusiastic and cheerful, adventurous, masculine, sophisticated, conservative and willing to work with people," Kobes said.

He noted that the attrition rate among cadets who entered with a history of athletic participation was 27 per cent, compared to 40 per cent for those with no participation.

Redwood Gals Triumph In Gymnastics

Competing against 300 other girls, some of the members of the Redwood High School girls gymnastics team took home first and second places at last weekend's northern California meet held in El Cerrito.

Jan Pedersen of Kentfield led the team by placing first in intermediate high school trampoline and second in intermediate uneven parallel bars, balance beam, and all around events.

Jackie Reynolds of Corte Madera placed first in beginning high school balance beam and third in beginning all around events. Pat Rhyne of Greenbrae won third in junior high competition for beginning vaulting, and Joy Wurtz of Kentfield took a first in advanced high school balance beam.

Redwood's gals will now compete at the Optional Northern California meet on May 1 at San Francisco State College.

Marin Rugby Team Enters Tournament

The Peacock Gap rugby team will be competing in the seventh annual Monterey Rugby Tournament Saturday and Sunday for the western championships.

The two days will be jam packed with rugby, action running from 8:30 a.m. to 5 p.m. both days. Some of the finest college and club teams will be competing in the matches at the Carmel Junior High School field.

The tourney is being sponsored by the Monterey Peninsula Junior Chamber of Commerce and the Northern California Rugby Union. Sixteen teams from Oregon to Mexico will participate.

Awards Dinner Slated Monday

An awards dinner will be held Monday night in St. Rita's Hall for boys who played on St. Rita's basketball teams, plus the cagers' fathers and coaches.

The teams recently completed a successful season in the Catholic Youth Organization (CYO) League. St. Rita's eighth grade "A" and "B" teams won first place, the seventh grade team took second place, the sixth grade "A" squad won fourth, and sixth grade "B" took second.

Bigger Pot For U.S. Open Golf Tourney June 17-20

NEW YORK (AP) — The 1965 U.S. Open Golf Championship will be played June 17-20 at the Bellrive Country Club in St. Louis — with an extra day of competition, a bigger pot and more automatic qualifiers than ever before.

Ground rules for this year's Open, announced by the United States Golf Association, provide for a final starting field of 150 golfers, eliminate the last-day double round in favor of four single rounds of 18 holes each, set prize money at a record $125,000 and continue qualifying rounds at local and sectional levels.

The USGA increased by 10 the number of automatic qualifiers to the championship and also boosted the number of exemptions for local qualifying.

The 15 lowest scorers in the 1964 Open, the 15 top money winners as of the last PGA tournament before the May 5 deadline for Open entries and the last five Open winners — Ken Venturi, Julius Boros, Jack Nicklaus, Gene Littler, Arnold Palmer — are assured of places in the championship starting field.

The winner will receive $25,000.

Tennis Win

Redwood High School's tennis team edked Lick-Wilmerding 3-2 Tuesday at Golden Gate Park in San Francisco. Singles winners for Redwood were John Zweig and Harry Johnson, and doubles winners were Mitch Fink and Jim Bedilion.

Concrete, Steel Pipe Firms Hit With Antitrust Suits

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — The State of California filed yesterday five antitrust suits against seven manufacturers of concrete and steel pipe.

Five separate suits were filed in U.S. District Court against U.S. Industries, American Pipe and Construction Co., United Concrete Pipe Co., Martin Marietta Co. and Smith-Scott Co.

The suits were filed on behalf of the State Department of Water Resources, the State Department of Public Works and all the cities, counties and special districts of California that may have been damaged.

The complaints charge the manufacturers conspired since 1946 to allocate business among themselves and fix prices of concrete and steel pipe within the Western area of the United States including California.

The suits also charge that the conspiracy resulted in denying free competitive bidding on pipe purchased by the state and local government agencies.

"The full extent of damages is still undetermined," Lynch said. The departments of water resources and highways alone acquired about $50 million worth of pipe during the period of the alleged conspiracy.

Tax Appraiser Bills Opposed

The San Francisco Bar Assn. is opposed to a series of bills by San Rafael Assemblyman William T. Bagley which would overhaul the state's historic system of politically appointed inheritance tax appraisers.

Bagley introduced a package of seven bills, proposing various alternatives to the present system under which the state controller appoints the inheritance tax appraisers.

The San Francisco Bar officials said yesterday none of the proposals offers the right answer. The association said the present system needs improvement, but recommended "further study and consideration."

Luncheons Popular Place For Marin Hostesses To Entertain

By MOLLY MARIN

Sunny Hills fund raising luncheons are a popular place for Marin hostesses to entertain their friends — Today at the luncheon and style showing given by the five Belvedere guilds of Sunny Hills at Peacock Gap Country Club Mrs. H. Corwin Hinshaw was hostess to a group including Mesdames Raymond Millzner, who was co-hostess; William Ferguson, Benton Mathews, Walter Simi, Ingemar Hoberg and Ralph C. Noah, all of Belvedere, and Mrs. Anne Sawyer of San Francisco.

Mrs. Robert Tenby of Belvedere was hostess to Marin and East Bay guests, Mesdames David Lerer and Charles Berry of Belvedere, Alfred Strasser of Tiburon, Charles Stoffer of Greenbrae and a group of four from Orinda. Also joining them was Mrs. Charles Judels of Belvedere, the hostess's mother.

AND WHEN THE Sunny Hills Juniors gather at the Meadow Club Wednesday for their luncheon and show Mrs. Charles Carruthers will be on hand to see her daughter, Mrs. Richard Dakin, do her stint as a model. Mrs. Carruthers has just returned from a trip south to visit Palm Springs and Palos Verdes, where her daughter Nancy, Mrs. Malcom Rorty, lives. Mrs. Justus Craemer of Kent Woodlands will be among the hostesses for the luncheon and style show that day, too.

MR. AND MRS. DAN SWEENEY of Greenbrae are planning to move to London or the vicinity for a year at the end of May. Their three boys, Kevin, Tod and Dana will attend school there for the year. This is the second trip of this kind for the Sweeneys; the first took place five years ago when they moved to Switzerland. The family will visit with Mrs. Sweeney's mother, Mrs. Milanka Velijkov, in Flint, Mich., before flying to New York, where they will board a ship for Southampton.

ALSO ENJOYING a party today at Peacock Gap Country Club was Mrs. Fannie Buckner of Seattle, whose birthday was celebrated with a bridge and luncheon for 25 guests. Mrs. Buckner is a houseguest in San Rafael, staying with her sister, Mrs. Rose Albert.

MAKING AMERICANS LEAN

Need Information Chart On How To Wear Off Calories

NEW YORK (UPI) — Eat a chocolate chip cookie and then another and on up to a dozen —and just sit.

That's one sure way to add yourself to the statistics concerning the fat of the land. But if you run — 180 steps to the minute — after each cookie, you'll not put on weight.

How much energy is there in a cookie? Fifty-one calories. Running three minutes at 180 steps per minute makes the chocolate chip cookie calories crumble.

DR. FRANK KONISH, of the Department of Food and Nutrition, Southern Illinois University, Carbondale, gets credit for this bit of intelligence in the battle of the bulge.

Dr. Konish, in a report in "Dietetics," Journal of the American Dietetic Assn., tells of other ways of wearing off the calorie cost of eating.

Taking 50 common foods, he's figured how long it takes to wear down the calories by walking, bike riding, swimming, running, reclining. This is the new approach to dieting information he thinks is necessary to make Americans lean.

Back to the cookie. If you prefer to wear its calories off the sedentary way, reclining. It will take 39 minutes. Eat a dozen and it will take you 7.6 hours to recline the calories away.

Swimming, you wear down a cookie in five minutes; walking, in 10 minutes; bike riding, in six minutes.

Dr. Konish figures the calorie-counting booklets ought to show the various ways of wearing off the calorie-cost of eating, giving the waistline conscious ones a choice of exercise.

Many Simple Acts Legal Transactions

NEW YORK (UPI)—An act simple as buying a loaf of bread or turning on an electric blanket is a legal transaction, says a professor who teaches a law course for women.

"You can't breathe without the law," said Prof. Henry Sellin of New York University's Division of General Education.

WHEN YOU SELECT a loaf of bread at the store you've made what Sellin called a "motion contract" with the grocer, the contract completed when you've paid for it. Flick on the electric blanket and you've contracted with the public utility to use its electricity and pay for it. Buy a paper, you handle legal tender. Hold an outside job? You've a contract with the employer, to be terminated when he wishes, unless there are union provisions otherwise.

Sellin's "woman's law class," which he has conducted for 15 years, is designed to acquaint women with legal transactions in which they normally are involved, to teach them their rights and duties under the law, and to help them influence legislation that regulates their lives.

Sellin said the class through the years has attracted ages from 16 to 75 and all types of questions from those on domestic relations to making wills.

"I try to avoid domestic relations discussions," said Sellin. "These are such individual matters and I'm not a marriage counselor."

A card party will be held at 1 p.m., tomorrow at Druids Hall in Novato, sponsored by the Novato Chapter No. 609 order of Eastern Star Bridge, whist and canasta will be played and awards given. Reservations chairmen are Mrs. Lewis Carlson, Mrs. John De Zeeuw and Mrs. Louise Mac Phee.

Richard Friedmans Elected To Lead Hi Hopes Chapter

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Friedman of Tiburon are the new presidents of the Hi-Hopes of Marin, a chapter of the City of Hope, national medical center in Southern California.

Julie and Rich, who have been married for six years, moved to Marin as newlyweds. They have been active members of the Hi-Hopes for nearly three years.

Their interest in the group was sparked by their wish to join a group in which they could participate as a couple to have fun and support a worthy cause. Hi Hopes consists of 25 couples who must work on all fund raising projects during the year to maintain membership. This year's fund raising events are activities such as a Monte Carlo dinner dance, a hot dog day and a concurse d'elegance.

The City of Hope, now in its 51 years is a free pilot medical center at Duarte devoted to patient care and to research in the fight against cancer, the leukemias, blood and hereditary diseases, and chest and heart diseases.

Rich and Julie are busy with their children Lisa, 2, and Bryan, 3, and Rich, who is a partner in a wholesale furrier firm in San Francisco, is currently Marin co-chairman of the Jewish Welfare Federation drive, vice president of the Marin Jewish Community Center, and a board member of the San Francisco Fashion Industries.

Julie has created a decorative wall in the family den with Rich's accumulation of hats. Julie is active, too, as program chairman of ORT, and she works on the adult education program at the Marin Jewish Community Center. Her hobbies are sewing and archery.

Officers and chairmen working with the Friedmans this year are Mr. and Mrs. Richard Bernstein, treasurers; Mrs. Larry Babow, secretary; Mrs. Evan Goldenberg, publicity; Larry Babow, concourse d'elegance; Mrs. Cy Rosen, Monte Carlo; and Mrs. Fred Pill, hot dog day.

By BETSY KLEIN

Redwood High School Student

Although a majority of Redwood High School students disapprove of others cheating, most of them have cheated in some way. This was among facts elicited by a questionnaire that was recently given to more than 10 per cent of the Redwood student body.

The survey, given to students from all four classes, was written and interpreted by members of a junior English-journalism class. More than 200 students completed the 13-question form.

Most of the questions required only a yes or no answer, but many students submitted their own ideas on what they consider cheating, why students cheat, and what steps Redwood should take to combat the problem.

A majority of those questioned felt that about 25 per cent of Redwood's students cheat; but when asked if they themselves have ever cheated, 86 per cent answered yes. However, only one person admitted to frequent cheating.

The freshman class was considered as having the largest percentage of cheating by 35 per cent of the students. The seniors have the least, according to student opinion.

Many of the students disagreed as to what constitutes cheating. Looking at another's paper was considered a major offense by 92 per cent, with carrying and using a "cheat sheet" ranking second. Only 29 per cent of the students felt that copying sections from books without footnoting should be considered cheating.

The survey also indicated the students' feeling that most of the cheating is carried on in the mathematics courses. Several suggested this is because of the objective nature of the tests in that field. Social studies was the second most often mentioned. Hardly anybody thought cheating a problem in shop courses or physical education.

College admission pressure was the main reason given for cheating by 91 per cent of those questioned. Parental pressure was also listed as an important factor, along with competition with students, and the high school's high standing.

The students felt that most cheating is stimulated by another student exposing his paper, or by the teacher ignoring cheating.

Seventy-two per cent of the students thought Redwood should adopt the honor system, with students being left alone during tests. Other suggestions were: no grades, but weekly or monthly progress reports instead of quarterly ones; only semester or yearly grades; no tests, but more emphasis on oral work in class.

Also proposed was the honor system for only "A" and "B" students, with harsh punishment given to those caught cheating.

Most students indicated they would be willing to follow several systems to combat cheating at Redwood. These included moving or covering up papers if they saw someone copying, and not passing information to students in other classes taking the same test.

If grading were only on a curve, the students felt that the amount of cheating would decrease. Another solution they thought possible was the idea of no grades at all, but merely quarterly reports of excellent, satisfactory, or unsatisfactory progress.

Eighty-five per cent of the students disapproved of cheating, even if they weren't involved. Most of those questioned felt that there can sometimes be a justification for cheating, although many said, "No, never."

Postmaster Job Studied In Sausalito

The Sausalito Chamber of Commerce board of directors is investigating the appointment of a permanent postmaster for Sausalito, director Halsey Lyon said today.

He said the present arrangement is "poor" and service has "dropped off." Lyon said there are two men running the post office which is headed by Acting Postmaster William McDonald.

The board at its meeting yesterday unanimously passed a resolution opposing abandonment of the Northwestern Pacific Railroad line to Sausalito.

Gary Hodgson, owner of the Princess Garden Shop, was appointed as director to succeed Russel H. Papenhausen, who has resigned, having moved from Sausalito.

The board agreed to make two $25 donations as prizes for the Sausalito Woman's Club Annual Art Show in May.

Some Members Attend Meeting

Members of the San Rafael Board of Education, at least some of them, attended the annual personnel meeting Tuesday night at which assignments for the next school year are decided and teachers are evaluated.

Asst. Supt. Mitchel Voydat, reporting on the closed meeting, said a quorum was present, but declined to say who was absent.

Any action needed as a result of the session will be taken at the board's meeting March 23, he said.

Budget Request For Marin Parks Tripled

The Marin County Parks and Recreation Commission has requested a fiscal 1966 budget of $339,067, more than triple this year's budget of $97,675, according to County Auditor-Controller Michael Mitchell.

The big boost is in land acquisition, for which the commission is seeking $200,000, as compared to $20,000 in the current budget.

Only major capital improvement project in the requested budget is $74,055 for second stage development of Paradise Beach County Park on the Tiburon Peninsula.

The commission also requested that the budget include $750 for printing 5,000 brochures on the county park system, and addition of a senior stenographed to the office staff.

The budget will be reviewed by Mitchell and County Administrator Alan Bruce before it is submitted to the board of supervisors.

Petitions Circulate Against Alto City

Petitions are being circulated in Alto and Strawberry urging the Marin County Local Agency Formation Commission to deny Approval of the incorporation of the City of Alto.

The commission will meet at Sabella's parking lot at 5 p.m. Monday, make a field trip of the proposed city, have dinner, then convene at Civic Center to hear the proposal for incorporation.

Corned Beef Dinner

The annual corned beef and cabbage dinner of Knights of Columbus, Our Lady of Loretto Council 3950, will be held at 8 p.m. Tuesday at the parish hall at Grant and Virginia avenues in Novato.

Natural Gas Appears In San Geronimo Reach

We hope that the current negotiations among the Pacific Gas and Electric Co., San Gernoimo Valley Assn., and the State Public Utilities Commission will bring gas into the valley before another cold winter rolls around.

For at least a dozen years, San Geronimo has yearned and petitioned for natural gas without avail.

As a profit-making enterprise, PG&E had to weigh the cost of bringing in lines over White's Hill with the probable number of patrons that it could reasonably expect the valley to produce.

Point Reyes National Seashore and a bigger influx of residents and tourists who will be pouring into and through San Geronimo, should be an added inducement to PG&E.

The valley now has a population of about 3,000, which compares with some of the smaller incorporated cities in the county. New buildings are going up. A golf course is being built near Woodacre. Everything points to continued growth in San Geronimo.

It is encouraging to note that in the last few meetings held by PG&E, public utilities commissioners and valley residents, issues have been narrowed down to the point where one or two stumbling blocks are all that remain.

But latest indication is that this may not be a hard and fast rule from which the utility company will not yield.

Another is the requirement that a substantial portion of the valley households must put up $50 each to show good faith that they will subscribe if the gas service is made available.

Accord is entirely within the realm of possibility. With the help of the State Public Utilities Commission and a show of good faith by residents, natural gas appears within reach of a long suffering valley.

We certainly hope that the next few meetings will bring a final breakthrough.

"Mirror, mirror on the wall, what is our most important job of all?"

THREE MINUTES A DAY

By JAMES KELLER

IT TAKES PATIENCE TO BE PATIENT

The word "patient" has an interesting origin. It comes from the Latin term "patior" meaning "to suffer."

A patient person, as defined in the dictionary, is one who "possesses or exercises quiet endurance or forbearance under distress, pain, injury, insult or suspense."

You can do a surprising amount of good in your home, at work or in promoting good causes if you can make a conscientious effort to put into practice the patience of Job.

Gentle but dogged perseverance, despite discouraging obstacles, can be convincing evidence that divine power can work through a human instrument like yourself.

The virtue of patience is repeatedly referred to throughout the Bible. But as Thomas Kempis wrote hundreds of years ago: "All men recommend patience, although few are willing to practice it."

"Life eternal indeed He will give to those who by patience in good works seeks glory and honor and immortality." (Romans 2:7)

Help me to push on, O Lord, when I am strongly tempted to give up.

BROWN VS. UNRUH

By EDWIN S. CAPPS

SACRAMENTO (CNS) — Oh, it's a long time, from March 'til November — especially if it's March, 1965, 'til November, 1966, the next election — and this may be the reason top Democrats in California have figured they could afford the luxury of a knock-down, drag-out fight in public.

That's about what's happening now, even though one of the principals involved, Assembly Speaker Jesse M. Unruh, D-Inglewood, has not permitted himself to be brought directly into the affair.

THE RUCKUS all started with Assemblyman James R. Mills, D-San Diego, a loyal supporter of Unruh, but not considered exactly a strongman in the operation. At a committee hearing, Mills charged the administration of Gov. Edmund G. Brown with illegal and criminal acts in unauthorized transfers of funds in the budget of the Department of Public Health. Admittedly, Mills was fairly drastic in his charges—enough so that a couple of other Unruh-Democrats attempted to soften the blow.

The real culprit, according to Mills' charges, was the Department of Finance and its director, Hale Champion.

ADMINISTRATIONS, including Brown's, have been criticized before. Legislators have been criticized before. A couple of years ago, in fact, Brown tarred the legislators with a pretty wide brush, charging they were captives of money-dispensing lobbyists and, as a result, wouldn't go along with his tax program.

There have been charges of unauthorized transfers of funds before, too, often in amounts more substantial than charged by Mills, and in both Republican and Democratic administrations.

But the difference this time is that Brown and his supporters have seized upon Mills' charges and are not willing to let go. They appear to want to bring the intra-party Democratic Party struggle into the open and the only conclusion appears to be that this is an opportune time. Such squabbles are extremely dangerous in election years.

WHILE UNRUH never has sought public office other than to the Assembly, and has been speaker of that body since September, 1961, he has made no secret of his ambitions to be governor. The same ambition often has been attributed to Champion.

There were reports that, during the 1962 campaign, Brown pledged to Unruh that, if he won election as governor, he would not seek re-election in 1966. Both have denied any such conversation ever took place.

Last spring, Unruh and Brown differed on the contest for U. S. senator. Brown went all out for State Controller Alan Cranston and Unruh backed Pierre Salinger, who won in the primary. But Salinger was defeated by George Murphy in the fall.

BROWN SAID President Lyndon B. Johnson has asked him, on at least two occasions, to seek re-election to a third term. Unruh said he has pledged his support to Brown, should he seek a third term. This leaves Unruh in a poor position, as far as his ambitions for the governor's office and some feel the only way he can get around his pledge is a straight-out fight with Brown.

The battle is presently under way.

WHAT OUR READERS SAY

'People Week' Much Needed

Editor, Independent-Journal:

My suggestion to our superfluous Governor is that he proclaim a "Be Kind to People Week."

I further suggest that the theme of this week be the following, which is not my brainchild:

"So many Gods, so many creeds,
So many ways that wind and wind,—
When just the art of being kind

Manuel Freitas Was A Leader

Editor, Independent-Journal:

In your March 11 issue, one Franklin B. Anderson asks, "And by the bye, just who or what was Manuel Freitas?" The wording of the question gives me an idea as to what Mr. Anderson is.

No doubt there are many worthwhile newcomers to Marin County who, knowing of the "Manuel T. Freitas Parkway" at Terra Linda, would like to know something about Manuel T. Freitas.

He arrived in San Francisco in 1871 from his native Portugal, speaking no English, with little or no formal education and owing for his "passage." He came to Marin County in the 1880s and died, in 1923, at age 70.

He fathered nine children, six of whom are still living, all in Marin County. Surviving him are 13 grandchildren and 28 great-grandchildren.

Through self-education, industry, thrift and business acumen, he became a leader in the business, financial, civic and religious activities of Marin and the Bay Area. He became an advisor to State Governors and others in political, agricultural and financial circles.

A thumbnail sketch of some of his achievements is as follows:

Director of the Bank of Italy, San Francisco Main office (now Bank of America); President of the Bank of San Rafael and of the First National Bank in San Rafael (now Crocker-Citizens National Bank); organizer and President of the Portuguese - American Bank, San Francisco (now Wells Fargo Bank; Director of the Novato Bank (now Central Valley National Bank).

During 1908/9 he was President of the I. D. E. S., a Statewide Fraternal Insurance Corporation, whose members were mainly of Portuguese extraction.

During the year of the Panama Pacific International Exposition in San Francisco (1915), although already a citizen of the United States, he represented his native country as Portugal's Consul General in San Francisco.

He was a partner in the Sherry - Freitas Company of San Francisco, for many years the maker and distributor of Shereitas Butter.

He was the owner of M. T. Freitas Company and later a partner in J. T. Freitas Company, San Francisco, commission merchants.

He was an organizer and/or Director and/or officer of the Associated Milk Producers of California, San Francisco Dairy Company, United Milk Company (San Francisco), Gridley Creamery and Ice Company, Central Commercial and Savings Bank of Vallejo, Portuguese Clothing Company, etc., etc.

Certainly most of these names mean little or nothing to most of Marin's present inhabitants, but to some they are meaningful.

Starting life in California with no financial assets, never having inherited one cent from anyone, supporting and educating a large family (all at private schools), contributing generously to Religious and Education institutions (including the Katherine Branson School in Ross), he died a wealthy man.

Among his assets at death were the Freitas Building at Fourth and B Streets, San Rafael (now Crocker-Citizens National Bank), and six dairy ranches, five in Marin and one in Solano County. One ranch was the 2,000 acre Freitas "C" Ranch at Novato (now San Marin) and another the Freitas Home Ranch (now Terra Linda).

When the original developers of Terra Linda and the State Highway Department and the Marin County Board of Supervisors all agreed that the principal street in Terra Linda should bear the name of Manuel T. Freitas (all of which was done without request from any member of the Freitas Family) certainly they, at least, recognized that here was a man and a name with historical significance.

I wish that I were half the man my father was.

Newspapers Garner Variety Of Support

Editor, Independent-Journal:

I was surprised to see the source of support the news media received in its drive for greater access to court proceedings and court information.

The Little Orphan Annie comic strip depicted one of a bunch of "Legally" . . . "Violent and Dangerous Maniacs," who were just released from a "rest home," saying "This time we're taking our case to an honest court of Justice! The Newspapers!"

At the opposite end of the spectrum of sophistication, the U. S. Supreme Court has ruled (N. Y. Times vs. Sullivan) that the news media retains the right to non-maliciously criticize public officials as a means of public protection.

Gas Price Problems Clearly Understood

Editor, Independent-Journal:

Thank you for printing my small letter. We just didn't think the I-J, our old friend, would try to hurt us without a reason. It made us mad for a while, but I just don't think anyone would believe we set gas prices.

Anyway, my letter and your answer helps set things right on why our Marin gas is high.

By the way, send us the I-J again—we miss all the news.

TRY AND STOP ME

BENNETT CERF

A SPOILED young lady got her come-uppance at the hands of a highway patrolman on California's heavily traveled Highway 101 recently. He flagged her and told her, "You were going 85 miles an hour, Miss." "I know," she replied airily, "but you must understand I have a luncheon date with Cary Grant, and don't want to keep him waiting." "I'll be as helpful as possible," replied the officer courteously. "I'll write the ticket as quickly as I can."

Question Period For Rusk In Congress Is Good Idea

WASHINGTON—If Congress can't bring itself to change any of its old rules, it might be willing to try a new one.

There are three good reasons for the modest innovation being urged by Reps. John Lindsay and Ogden R. Reid of New York, Bradford F. Morse of Massachusetts, Charles Mathias of Maryland and other congressmen.

THE PROPOSAL, advanced by several presidents, senators and representatives during the past 100 years, is this:

That the secretary of state be invited to the House of Representatives to answer questions from members.

If it works well and satisfies both Congress and the White House, it can be expanded. If the House has a question period, the Senate will want one also. If both houses are to have question periods, they should be conducted jointly to save everybody's time. But these are matters for the future. The question is: Should we make a beginning?

THERE IS A STRONG case for doing so:

1. It would help the public. As never before, the American people need more information, more insight, more judgment on foreign affairs, if U. S. policy is to have support and stability. An occasional statement from the president, an occasional speech by the secretary of state—these are not enough to nourish public opinion. Better debate, a better clash of opinion would stimulate public interest. The appearance of the secretary of state before Congress would provide the best possible forum. It would require franker, fuller, clearer exposition by the administration.

2. It would help Congress. A question period by the secretary of state will meet two needs. There is a need for more congressmen — not just the members of the foreign affairs committees—to get authoritative answers from the administration. Periodically, it should be open to all congressmen to ask the hardest questions and receive the best possible answers.

3. It would help the president. No president can effectively conduct foreign policy without the steady understanding and support of Congress. The best way to get it is to see that all congressmen are better informed and fuller participants. For the secretary of state to be willing to stand up on the floor of Congress and deal with questions directly and candidly would be a valuable means of sustaining congressional support. It would sharpen administration thinking. It would reduce criticism-without-knowledge.

SUCH A QUESTION period would open a new window in Washington — and all would benefit. It would create the kind of exciting exchange which would do most to galvanize public interest.

In the early days of Congress, members of the Cabinet —John Jay, Alexander Hamilton, Henry Knox—appeared on the floor of the House and Senate, as did President George Washington on one occasion. The arrangement was allowed to lapse.

Twice it has been proposed to renew the procedure, once by Rep. George Pendleton, D-Ohio, in 1864 and later by Rep. Estes Kefauver and Sen. William Fulbright in 1944. Presidents John Garfield, Woodrow Wilson and Warren G. Harding have supported the idea, as well as Secretaries of State Elihu Root, Henry Stimson, Charles Evans Hughes and James F. Byrnes.

Today the need is greater than ever. The value would be greater. It would by worthwhile to try it.

New Surplus Food Policy Is Proposed

By ROBERT S. ALLEN and PAUL SCOTT

WASHINGTON — The Agriculture Department is considering a revolutionary change in its distribution of surplus farm commodities to the poor, that could have far-reaching impact on local and state governments.

The new policy, if approved, will permit private organizations, including civil rights, student and church groups, to handle the distribution of this food in counties that have refused this federal aid.

FOR THE FIRST time since the food program was set up by Congress after World War II and expanded in the 1960s, local authorities and agencies would be bypassed and their counsel disregarded.

Testing area for this controversial program will be in Mississippi's racially explosive counties, where the U. S. Youth Council and one of its affiliates, the National Student Assn., have requested authority to distribute the food.

These liberal-leaning organizations propose to use the facilities of a host of civil rights groups and the National Council of Churches in the South to store and dispense the foodstuffs to both Negroes and whites in areas without programs.

Under long-established policy, the Agriculture Department offers surplus dried milk, dried meat, peanut butter, sugar and flour to state, county and city governments for distribution to those on relief and low-income families.

LOCAL WELFARE departments or corresponding local government agencies are responsible for seeing that it goes to the right people.

However, in a number of areas, including many counties in the South, local officials have balked at setting up such programs or accepting the government's offers of free surplus food. Reasons for their lack of enthusiasm range from dislike of federal aid to a belief the food is not needed.

When faced with such local opposition in the past, agriculture authorities went no further, on the ground it was official policy to distribute the food only through local governments.

WHILE SOME agriculture officials still maintain this was the intent of Congress in setting up the program, Asst. Secretary George Mehren is taking a broader view.

Supported by rulings of his department's legal office, Mehren, in backstage discussions on the policy change, contends it is legal to resort to private groups if local governments refuse to handle the food.

The unannounced rulings have opened the way for Mehren to consider the student groups' proposal, pending in the department since December, to distribute food in Mississippi.

ACCORDING TO their plan, the student leaders would initiate their operation by selecting one of the 16 counties in Mississippi without surplus food programs.

They intend to recruit a staff from civil rights, church and other student groups to contact families in need of the food.

If this proves workable and successful, the student groups will expand their operations to other Mississippi counties and later to other areas of the country.

Remember The 50-Mile Hikes? They Can Be Fun In Marin

Redwood High School students were the chief local instigators, and many teen-agers saw more of Marin County than most old-timers ever had.

They trouped, alone and in large groups, all the way to Point Reyes Station and back —or at least they tried to. Others walked from Bootjack Camp on Mount Tamalpais to San Rafael and back.

AIRMEN AT Hamilton Air Force base caught the fever and trudged up U. S. Highway 101 to Cotati and back to set some kind of a record for speed.

A San Rafael bar owner and his customers, in high spirits, vowed to make a long walk. Like characters in the Eugene O'Neill play, many never got outside the door. But the bar owner, his wife and children did make the walk.

SO DID AN 8-year-old girl. She flaked out on her first try but completed the trip on the second.

It was the two-month craze of 50-mile hikes. They started after the late President John F. Kennedy said that any well-trained Marine ought to be able to cover 50 miles, under full pack, in a day. It turned out that most Marines were equal to the job.

But it was surprising how many other men and women could do it. Marin, always a county of hikers, had more than its share of persons striding off with "vigah."

BECAUSE pedestrians are not allowed on most freeways in California, the highway patrol had to chase some walkers off their desired routes, but generally police went out of their ways to insure that hikers would not be run down as they walked along Sir Francis Drake Boulevard.

And, all in all, no one was hurt, although there were a lot of sore feet and stiff muscles.

Late winter and early spring, Lent, is a good time for long walks. The pilgrimage to Canterbury was made at that time of year in Chaucer's day. The British "ban-the-bombers" keep the tradition alive during Easter holidays even now.

And a long walk in a large crowd of people can be fun. It is not just a test of stamina and will power. It is a social event, like a camp meeting or a Little League game or a cocktail party.

People who participate must believe in some serious purpose in what they are doing, but the fun is not really connected with the purpose.

It is about 50 miles from Selma to Montgomery. The walk there, along the soft shoulder of the road, is leisurely, but also probably a lot of fun.

THOSE WHO tried to make the walk in Alabama the first time were told by a state trooper it "would not be conducive to their safety." That warning was an understatement. It's nice to live in Marin, where a 50-mile walk means nothing more serious than sore feet.

MORRIE RYSKIND

What Ever Became Of Free World Grand Alliance, Honor, Gratitude?

YOU READ the news of the day and you wonder what became of the Grand Alliance of the Free World and whether honor and gratitude are anything more than words. There may always be an England and a France—and I hope so devoutly—but surely part of the reason is that, in two world wars, American boys fought and died on every continent to preserve them.

And yet here is President Charles de Gaulle insisting on his pound of flesh, though it may wound us mortally. And in England, after Prime Minister Harold Wilson says he will back us in Viet Nam, he is faced by a revolt of some 50 members of his own party.

Of course, we're busy making new friends: Like Poland and Yugoslavia, who so far always wind up in opposition to us but whom meanwhile we keep in a style to which they're not accustomed. And then there's Nasser, who spits in our eye and tells us to keep our money; but when Congress takes him at his word, President Johnson twists a couple of arms and everything is smoothed over. Gamal Abdel can count on us again for this year.

THE BACKSTAGE reasons for the last case may be sound, but we are left in the dark. I am reminded of an anecdote related to me by Jack Oakie of movie fame. Jack was at the track one day, studying his racing form in an endeavor to pick a winner for the following race.

A friend happened by and said, "Wait a minute, Jack. I just saw my pal, Joe, who knows all about horses and owes me a favor or two. I'll find out what he thinks and let you know." When he came back, Jack asked, "Well, did Joe have anything?"

"No," said the friend, glumly. "But I had to lend him $20."

I QUESTION whether the white Southerner's bias against Negroes is one whit worse than the Northern liberal's bias against white Southerners. Dispatches I read said clearly that a woman demonstrator had struck Sheriff James Clark of Selma, Ala., and knocked him down. But the widely publicized pictures showed a woman being held by two deputies and Clark bending over her with a billy, apparently striking her. Utter savagery—and I recoiled in disgust.

It wasn't till the sheriff, in two TV interviews, produced the picture taken immediately before that it became clear that the woman had seized the nightstick from one of the deputies and that the sheriff was simply trying to regain possession of it.

So that now, with the latest outbreak in Selma, I find myself waiting for the full returns before rendering judgment. Once bitten, twice shy.

AND THERE IS the constant use of subliminal semantics to make a point. One reporter, e. g., stationed in Alabama, when quoting a white man, invariably has him say "Nigra" with the obvious implication that it is a contemptuous term.

But that's exactly how the Southerner, white or black, pronounces "Negro." With no more malice than when they both leave out the "r" in "sir" so that it emerges as "suh."

President Kennedy had a habit — he was frequently spoofed for it—of pronouncing "Cuba" as "Cuber." Now he didn't like the bearded dictator of that unhappy isle, but no one—not even Castro—claimed his pronunciation was a denigration of the Cuban people.

20 YEARS AGO

Marin County's first drive-in restaurant was planned by John Z. Morrow of San Anselmo on West Fourth Street near the San Rafael-San Anselmo city line.

Award of $190,000 in contracts for three Air Transport Command buildings at Hamilton Field divulged the beginning of a million-dollar expansion of the base as a terminal for arrivals of the gigantic C-54 transport planes.

The tanker S.S. Ventura Hills was launched, the 73rd ship to slide down the ways of Marinship.

ANOTHER SPADE

This worked so well that he overtook the king of diamonds with the ace to lead another spade. West again played low, and dummy's queen won.

South had already made one serious mistake, but he still didn't see the need for thought. He overtook the ten of hearts with the jack and led his last spade. West took the ace and returned a heart.

Suddenly South saw his danger. If he overtook with the ace of hearts, he could discard clubs on both red queens, but that would still leave him with a losing club.

CLUB TRICK

If he let dummy's heart win, there was no way to get to his hand without first giving up a club trick.

South made his first error by overtaking the king of diamonds to lead a second spade. He should lead the queen of spades from dummy.

If West won, South could then overtake the diamond to lead a spade and finesse with dummy's nine.

SECOND ERROR

The second error was in overtaking a heart to continue the spades. As he played the hand, South must abandon the spades. He leads a low club from dummy in the hope that East has the king.

This produces three club tricks, and South scrambles home with two spades, four hearts, and three diamonds.

Iowa Farms Shrink

DES MOINES, Iowa (UPI)—Iowa lost about 5,000 of its farms during the past year, according to the Iowa Cooperative Crop and Livestock Reporting Service. The loss was a continuation of the steady decline in farm numbers that began in the early 1940s. The amount of land being farmed in Iowa remains the same — 34.6 million acres.

ALMANAC

Today is Thursday, March 18, the 77th day of 1965 with 288 to follow.

The moon is approaching its last quarter. The morning star is Mars. The evening stars are Mars, Mercury and Jupiter.

Grover Cleveland, the 22nd and 24th president of the U.S. was born on this day in 1837.

On this day in history:

In 1902, Enrico Caruso became the first artist to recognize the importance of the phonoraph when he recorded 10 arias in a Milan, Italy, hotel room. He was paid $500.

In 1937, 426 people were killed in an explosion in the Consolidated Public School in New London, Tex. Most of the victims were children.

In 1962, the cease-fire between France and Algeria was signed, ending a seven-year civil war.

A thought for the day—The late British stateman Sir Winston Churchill said: "The only guide to a man is his conscience; the only shield to his memory is the rectitude and sincerity of his actions."

When a Family Buys A Home in Central Marin . . . Where Do They Come From?
Latest Research* shows that 69.7% of home buyers in Central Marin are ALREADY LIVING in the County.

This is a ratio of MORE THAN 3½ to 1 than from San Francisco.

BUYER ORIGIN	%
Marin County	69.7
San Francisco	19.6

- The Prime Market then, for home sales, is Marin itself . . . and the I-J Classified "gets home" to the people who buy the MOST HOMES in Marin . . . Marin families themselves because the I-J covers 2 out of 3 homes in the County
- The I-J daily circulation in Marin County is GREATER than that of the San Francisco Chronicle and the Examiner COMBINED!!
- NO WASTE — NO HIGH-PRICED SPACE GOING TO NON-PRODUCTIVE AREAS.

When a Family Buys A Home in Northern Marin . . . Where Do They Come From?

Latest research* shows that 71.9% of home buyers in Northern Marin are ALREADY LIVING in the County.

This is a ratio of almost 5 to 1 MORE than from San Francisco.

BUYER ORIGIN	%
Marin County	71.9
San Francisco	14.6

- The Prime Market then, for home sales, is Marin itself . . . and the I-J Classified "gets home" to the people who buy the MOST HOMES in Marin . . . Marin families themselves because the I-J covers 2 out of 3 homes in the County.
- The I-J daily circulation in Marin County is GREATER than that of the San Francisco Chronicle and the Examiner COMBINED!!
- NO WASTE — NO HIGH PRICED SPACE GOING TO NON-PRODUCTIVE AREAS.

When a Family Buys A Home in Southern Marin . . . Where Do They Come From?

Latest Research* shows that 65.9% of home buyers in Southern Marin are ALREADY LIVING in the County.

This is a ratio of MORE THAN 2 to 1 than from San Francisco.

BUYER ORIGIN	%
Marin County	65.9
San Francisco	31.9

- The Prime Market then, for home sales, is Marin itself . . . and the I-J Classified "gets home" to the people who buy the MOST HOMES in Marin . . . Marin families themselves because the I-J covers 2 out of 3 homes in the County.
- The I-J daily circulation in Marin County is GREATER than that of the San Francisco Chronicle and the Examiner COMBINED!!
- NO WASTE — NO HIGH PRICED SPACE GOING TO NON-PRODUCTIVE AREAS.

TELEVISION REVIEW

New Music Center Is Star Of Show

By RICK DU BROW

It was the first time a major, national television show had emanated from this genuinely splended structure, which is truly something to see and an acoutstical wonder besides.

In fact, although the hour passed pleasantly enough in terms of entertainment, the viewer might well have wished that even more time had been spent touring and detailing this center which has already received so much national and international acclaim.

One also wished that ABC-TV had had the inspiration to present the show in color to match the richness and beauty of its setting.

Even so, the various shots of the center, inside and out on the grand concourse — where ballerina Maria Tallchief and John Butler danced to the accompaniment of classical guitarist Laurindo Almeida— were enough to rivet the attention.

There was, of course, an audience on hand for the show inside the center. And the wide scope of the performers apparently was intended to indicate the variety of entertainment to be seen there.

Bob Hope, for instance, was a guest. And others included bossa nova guitarist Joao Gilberto, and jazz organist Jimmy Smith and composer Henry Mancini, who played piano, and the UCLA Chorus and Glee Club. Needless to say, Miss Shore sang just fine, especially in a rendition of "Swing Low, Sweet Chariot" with the UCLA visitors.

THE CHANNEL SWIM: Jackie Robinson will be a commentator-analyst for ABC-TV's weekend network baseball games, which start next month . . . Nelson Eddy and Allan Sherman appear on the same network's "Hollywood Palace" March 27 . . . Dave Garroway hosts "ABC's Nightlife" the week of April 19-23 . . . CBS-TV's newly-scheduled Thursday night movies for next season include "Elmer Gantry," "The Manchurian Candidate," "A Majority of One," "Requiem For a Heavyweight," "Oceans 11," "The Devil at Four O'Clock" and "Sunrise at Campobello."

Novato Citizens Incorporate To Help With Parks

Articles of incorporation were drawn up Tuesday night by a meeting of the temporary board of directors of Novato Civic Foundation at the offices of Edwin H. Grundstrom, Novato attorney.

The corporation was proposed at a public meeting on March 3. Grant A. Morse of 1525 Buchanan Street was named temporary chairman.

Proposed by-laws, also drawn up last night, will be submitted to a public meeting on April 27, at a place yet to be selected.

Mill Valley Woman Describes Her Rugged 'Safari' In Africa

Roberta Winans of Mill Valley ended her four and one-half month African "safari" by bumping 200 miles into the bush in a four-wheel drive car to witness the opening of the seven forks hydro-electric project in Kenya.

"They tried to say it was too rugged a trip for a woman," Miss Winans wrote the Independent-Journal today, "but somehow I convinced them they could make an exception since I had spent three long nights, as well as days, in African busses."

She said a game department official, armed with a gun, was on duty throughout the ceremonies "to guard against intruding elephants."

"It was a great occasion and I sat within 15 or 20 minutes of 'Mzee' (the old one; he is 74)", wrote Miss Winans.

She said the project will mean much to the development of Kenya, which gained its independence in 1963.

"I told a friend at the inauguration of the project at Kindaruma that it must have been a very strenuous week for President Jomo Kenyatta, who officiated.

"He had chaired the stormy organization for African unity conference, entertained the highly controversial Tshombe, prime minister of the Congo."

Miss Winans' friend responded, "Yes, he is a young man but is worn out trying to follow Mzee, who seems to thrive on it all."

The indefatigable Marin traveler said she is "greatly impressed" by Kenyatta and thinks him "the greatest African statesman of them all . . .

"When I ask what will happen when he can no longer lead, the answer is always: "We just hope he will stay around a long time."

"Just think," a top American in a leading advertising firm told Miss Winans' "six years ago nearly every one thought of Kenyatta as the worst man in East Africa. When independence came many white business men panicked and left. Now some are returning. Those of us who stayed are finding it pays. And we like to have our homes here."

"My incomparable African safari comes to an end here two days hence," she wrote March 11. She entered Africa at Morocco, traveled down the West Coast to the Congo with trips to Timbuctu from Dakar and to Malawi from Salisbury, then across the Congo and down to Capetown.

She then went up the East Coast to Mombasa and to within sight of the Congo and Ruanda borders in Uganda. In Blantyre, Malawi, she spent Christmas Eve at the home of Prime Minister Hastings Banda, who studied medicine at University of Chicago when Miss Winans attended the institution.

"We talked first of old days and mutual friends in Chicago," said the Mill Valleyan, "then of what he hoped I would tell my people of his work and hopes for Malawi."

As she said last October, "I will come home when I get tired. I can fly home from any port in the world in two days."

Sign Damaged

Someone did $80 damage to a 13-foot sign at Pierce-Hardin Van and Storage, 28 Woodland Avenue, Earl C. Farnsworth of the firm told San Rafael police yesterday. Farnsworth said a van apparently hit the sign.

Automation Peril Views Given By Labor Experts

Long-range planning rather than "crash programs" is needed to answer problems of joblessness caused by automation, according to two labor experts who addressed the Mill Valley Democratic Club at the American Legion Hall Tuesday night.

Don Vial, chairman, Center for Labor Research, Institute of Industrial Relations, University of California, and Richard Liebes, research director, Building Service Employees Union, both share the view that studies must be made of future employment needs to train the jobless now.
